Dr. Lutz Dies In Columbus Hospital

DR. CLAYTON F. LUTZ

Dr. Clayton F. Lutz, minister of the United Brethren for 37 years, died 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

Dr. Lutz, 73, has lived with his wife, Bernice Atkins Lutz, who survives, in Logan Elm Village for several years.

He began service in 1933 as minister to the South High EUB Church in Columbus, also serving at the 5th Ave. and Burgess Ave. churches in the Capital City and the Long Run Church, Portsmouth, and Franklin EUB in Westerville.

At his retirement Dr. Lutz had completed 12 years as Conference Superintendent of the EUB Churches of Southeastern Ohio District. He also served 16 years as Conference Director of Christian Education. For nine years he served in the position of president of the Stoutsville Camp.

Lutz was also a 49 year member of the Adelphi Masonic Lodge.

Other survivors include one brother, Emmett, of Amanda and two sisters, Mrs. Edith Patterson and Mrs. Ruth Claggett, both of Columbus.

Services will be 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Emmett Chapel United Methodist Church in Logan Elm Village. Rev. Earl Bender and Rev. Ray Hughes will officiate. Burial will be in Hallsville Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Defenbaugh Funeral Home beginning 7 p.m. Tuesday and after 11 a.m. Thursday at the church.

Kasabian Immunity Papers Set

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Linda Kasabian—the state's prime witness against Charles Manson and three codefendants—may be given immunity today from prosecution in the murder of Sharon Tate and six others. But another important issue will remain: her complicity.

At defense attorneys' request, Superior Court Judge Charles Older scheduled a hearing today on whether to grant Mrs. Kasabian immediate immunity. The defense says the witness, still under cross-examination, might recant her testimony if she is sure of not being prosecuted.

During 10 previous days on the witness stand Mrs. Kasabian said she went along on murder missions Aug. 9 and 10, 1969, but that she was a lookout and didn't kill anybody. The prosecution promised her immunity in return for her testimony.

Although Mrs. Kasabian may not go to jail as a result of the killings, whether she is judged an accomplice could affect the fate of Manson, 35, Susan Atkins, 21, Leslie Van Houten, 20, and Patricia Krenwinkel, 22.

California law says a defendant can't be convicted solely on the testimony of an accomplice. But, says one prosecutor in the Tate case, "Corroborating evidence need not be strong enough to convict. It must tie each person to the case."

To provide such corroborating evidence, the prosecution plans to call at least 40 witnesses.

Guerrillas Slay Kidnaped U.S. Police Expert

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The Tupamaro guerrillas executed American police expert Daniel A. Mitrione during the night because the Uruguayan government refused to release an estimated 150 political prisoners as ransom for him and two other kidnaped foreign officials.

Mitrione's body was found bound and gagged in a blood-stained car parked on a city street. He had been shot twice in the head. A bandage covered the chest wound he suffered when he was kidnaped July 31 while driving to work.

Police sealed off the area, removed the body from the car and declined to say where they had taken it. They refused to give official confirmation that it was Mitrione's, but police officials told newsmen there was little or no doubt.

Unconfirmed reports circulated that a second body had been found, but the police said nothing.

The abandoned car was found at an intersection about four miles from the center of the city. People living near the intersection said they had not heard shots or cars roaring off. This indicated that the Tupamaros had killed Mitrione, driven the body to the intersection and left the area on foot.

The car had been stolen Sunday. It was stained with blood. Mitrione apparently was killed more than 12 hours after the Sunday noon deadline set by the Tupamaros for his execution. They had said they would kill him because President Jorge Pacheco Areco refused to free an estimated 150 political prisoners as ransom for Mitrione and two other foreigners kidnaped by the leftist guerrilla organization.

The Tupamaros have said nothing about what they plan to do with their other captives—Brazilian Consul Aloysio Mares Dias Gomide, 41, and Claude Fly, 65, of Fort Collins, Colo., a U.S. soil expert working for the Uruguayan government.

Dias Gomide was kidnaped July 31, the day Mitrione was seized. Fly was kidnaped last Friday.

Mitrione, 50-year-old former police chief of Richmond, Ind., is the second foreigner killed in the wave of Latin-American political kidnappings that began last September. Guatemalan rebels murdered the West German ambassador, Count Karl von Spreti, last April after the Guatemalan government refused to release 17 political prisoners.

Local radio stations received several anonymous telephone calls shortly after the deadline hour Sunday reporting that Mitrione had been executed. The callers also said the other two hostages would be killed but the Tupamaros issued no communiqué to confirm either report.

U.S. And Russia Widen Commercial Air Accord

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. and Soviet negotiators have reached tentative agreement to expand commercial airline service between the two nations, but diplomatic sources report America has rejected a Soviet bid to permit transcontinental flights over both nations.

The expansion would permit Pan American World Airways to land at Leningrad and Aeroflot, the Soviet government owned airline, to serve Washington, D.C. Flights currently are limited to New York and Moscow.

The Russians reportedly expressed an interest in extending their existing route to the West Coast and beyond. In return, they were described as willing to allow Pan American to fly across Siberia to the Pacific.

But the United States turned down the transcontinental proposal on grounds it was not commercially justified, sources said. They added the United States believes expanded air service should be based on commercial—rather than political—reasons.

Besides permitting the U.S. and Soviet flag carriers to land at Leningrad and Washington, the agreement also would permit the two carriers to step up the number of flights from two to six a week.

A final U.S. okay of the deal is being held up pending Soviet action to clear away some difficulties that have faced Americans since the flights began two years ago, the sources said.

The U.S.-Soviet flights were inaugurated in 1968 after drawn-out negotiations as part of the decade-old U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange program designed to improve relations between the two super powers.

In the U.S. opinion, the Soviets have refused to grant sufficient maintenance and service facilities for the American airlines or provide adequate quarters for Pan American personnel living in Moscow.

U.S. aviation inspectors also have run into problems getting Soviet visas or entry permits. Aeroflot also has received a passenger advantage because of Soviet pressure on its citizens to fly via the government airline.

Cambodians 'Help' U.S.

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command acknowledged today for the first time that Cambodian aerial spotters are flying aboard American-piloted observation planes to help in bombing strikes in Cambodia.

In response to a query whether Cambodian observers are flying with American forward air controllers a command spokesman replied: "Yes, when their (the Cambodians) knowledge of the terrain is helpful to the mission."

The question of American air support in Cambodia came into the open last week after correspondents reported seeing U.S. planes flying bombing strikes in direct support of Cambodian troops.

Until that time, the United States maintained that its air strikes in Cambodia were intended only to destroy communist troops and supplies that would threaten American and other allied troops in South Vietnam.

But American officials admitted that some strikes, in effect, were in direct support of Cambodian troops threatened with being overrun.

Army Starts Moving Nerve Gas For Disposal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Army plans to embark today upon what it says will be its last mission to ship lethal nerve gas by rail for dumping in the Atlantic Ocean.

Trains carrying 418 concrete and steel jacketed vaults of nerve gas rockets—30 to the vault—were to leave Blue Grass Army Depot near Richmond, Ky., and Anniston, Ala., Army Depot for North Carolina to be loaded aboard a barge. It will be scuttled in waters 16,000 feet deep 282 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla.

The Army kept the routes secret but said the shipments would move through thinly populated areas. By highway, it is about 540 miles from Anniston and about 645 miles from Richmond to the North Carolina coast.

The Army said there is no danger of leakage from the vaults.

Army chemical experts will accompany the shipments and their mechanical gas-leak detectors will be backed up by 12 rabbits and 12 pigeons, highly sensitive to gas.

Army spokesmen said similar shipments in the future will be unnecessary because the Army is developing a method of decomposing the gas at the military bases where it is stored.

It said detonation of a 60-pound charge of dynamite beneath a vault would not damage it enough to allow gas to escape. The vaults are encased in quarter-inch armor plating.

Congressional sources said the Anniston train will pass through the Georgia cities of Bremen, Griffin, Macon and Athens before angling up through the Carolinas to an ocean terminal at Sunny Point, N.C.

The train is to move no faster than 35 miles per hour. A check of the rails was completed Saturday.

Reds Attack 2 Cambodian Base Areas

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — One Communist attack was reported five miles north of Phnom Penh today, while other Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces hit Saang, 24 miles to the south, for the second straight day.

In South Vietnam, 10 Americans were killed and 41 wounded in two ground attacks, mine and booby trap incidents, and two aircraft crashes.

The attack just north of Phnom Penh appeared to be only a minor skirmish, on an outpost at Prek Leap on the Mekong River. A government spokesman said the attackers were driven off with the help of naval boats on the river. But the attack, coupled with another Friday at Prek Luong, slightly less than five miles from Phnom Penh, indicated that the enemy has moved within rocket and artillery range of the capital.

The spokesman said enemy concentrations around Phnom Penh were not as large as they were a month ago, but he said the enemy strength was increasing steadily. For the moment, however, there was no solid indication that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were about to launch an offensive against the city.

The spokesman claimed 10 enemy killed at Saang and said fighting continued there today. The district capital, on the Bassac River, has been hit repeatedly since it is on one of the main enemy infiltration routes from Vietnam to the base camp area the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese are building up near the Kiri Rom plateau.

New fighting also was reported at Kiri Rom, 53 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. The Cambodian command said a large government patrol was ambushed and suffered heavy casualties, with five killed and 39 wounded. He said the enemy left 39 bodies on the battlefield.

Most of the action in South Vietnam was reported in the northern provinces.

The U.S. Command also announced that the total number of U.S. forces in Vietnam dropped by 350 last week, to 406,350. President Nixon's timetable for withdrawal of American units calls for the total to be reduced to 384,000 men by mid-October.

Greek Military Junta Frees 500

ATHENS (AP) — The Greek military dictatorship today announced the release of 500 political prisoners and said it was part of a "new liberalization policy."

George Georgalas, the government spokesman, told his weekly press briefing the "Communist detainees," including 22 women, would be freed in three stages within the next two weeks.

Explaining the releases, Georgalas said the "revolution and the government are now in complete control of the situation, and the regime is so solidified and powerful that it can afford to make such concessions without endangering security and public order."

GOP Governors Open Meet, Eye Upcoming Elections

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Republican governors generally rate President Nixon's popularity high among the voters, and they hope some of it will rub off on their own campaigns in an autumn race against odds which favor Democratic state house gains.

Democrats forecast inroads into the 32-18 majority the Republicans now enjoy among governors, and the chairman of the GOP Governors Association acknowledges the arithmetic favors that outcome.

"We have a very difficult road with 35 governors up and 24 of them now Republican," said Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania, the chairman. "The odds are against us. We're going to do everything we can to fight those odds."

Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri, a Democrat, said Democrats could fashion a state house comeback as dramatic as that achieved by Republicans after their landslide defeats six years ago, when Lyndon B. Johnson swept to the White House.

With elections three months away, the state executive began three days of business sessions at the 62nd National Governors conference in the guarded luxury of a lakeside resort.

Extraordinary security precautions gave a garrison atmosphere to their secluded retreat. Hearnes said there had been no threats of disruption, and called the picket duty and patrols of National Guardsmen and police simply "the old ounce of prevention."

The first controversy facing the governors is a proposal that they recommend broadening of the federal highway trust fund so that the money could be spent for subways and other modes of transportation, as well as for roadbuilding.

Highway interests aimed a barrage of telegrams at the governors, urging rejection of a proposed policy statement asking Congress to let the states make transfers from the transportation fund.

Isaac Annexation Gets Opposition

Pickaway County Commissioners today received a petition containing 74 signatures opposing the annexation of the Isaac Addition to the city of Circleville.

Last week the county solons received a petition containing 86 signatures seeking the annexation.

A hearing date has been scheduled 8 p.m. Oct. 14 to consider the annexation. According to Ohio Law, if an area adjacent to a municipality or incorporated village seeks annexation by petition, the document must be signed by a majority of the land owners.

Prosecuting Attorney Roy Huffer today advised the commissioners to schedule the hearing for the annexation.

HE explained that anyone who had signed either petition could withdraw their names for a period of 20 days. He also pointed out that names could be withdrawn if the signer showed reason at the hearing.

According to commissioners, this is the third time landowners of the area have sought annexation to the city. The area involved is about 55.86 acres and as nearly as can be determined, involves 163 landowners.

The petition for annexation presented last week contained 86 signatures. Huffer noted that if five or more signatures are found invalid or are withdrawn from the petition, the bid for annexation will have failed since it was not signed by a majority of the landowners.

In other business today, the commissioners accepted the resignation of Keith Wagner from the Pickaway County Airport Authority and named Richard L. Davis, 346 Meadow Lane, to serve his unexpired term.

A resolution was approved by commissioners to place a one half mill levy on the November ballot. Money from the levy will be used for the operation of Brooks-Yates School for Retarded Children.

The commissioners authorized County Engineer Henry McCrady to proceed by force account and replace structure No. 12 on the Circleville Tarlton Road and structure No. 13 on the Circleville Groveport Road with corrugated pipe arches.

A PRIORITY list for Issue 1 projects were approved by commissioners. Issue 1 funds are available for elimination of traffic bottlenecks in the county.

Given first priority was the grading, draining and paving of Main St. in Ashville from Walnut St. to Circleville Ave. Estimated cost of the project is $43,500.

7-Year-Old Killed In Fire, Explosion

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen were trying to determine the cause of an explosion and fire in which a 7-year-old Middletown boy was fatally burned Saturday night.

IFI Students Were On Tour Of Inca Ruins

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Forty-nine young American exchange students returning from the Inca ruins at Machu Picchu were reported killed Sunday in the crash of a Peruvian airliner. The Department of Civil Aviation said 99 of the 100 persons aboard died, making it Peru's worst air disaster.

Several other Americans were aboard in addition to the students spending the summer in Peru under the sponsorship of International Fellowship Inc. of Buffalo, N.Y. But their exact number was uncertain.

International Fellowship received from the State Department a list of 49 of its students 14 to 19 years old aboard the plane. But the airline, Lansa, issued a list of 54 Americans aboard which included three other teen-agers, a 21-year-old and four older tourists. The airline listed two of the students on International Fellowship's list as Peruvians, and it was thought some of those it listed as American might be Peruvian.

The airline said the Lockheed Electra carried 91 passengers and seven crew members, but later the Aviation Department said there were two more crew members aboard.

One man, the copilot, survived. He was found in the wreckage of the cockpit.

Most of the passengers had flown to Cuzco, the ancient Inca capital 365 miles southeast of Lima, for an excursion to the Inca ruins at nearby Machu Picchu. After the day of sight-seeing, the plane had just taken off from Cuzco for Lima when one of its four turboprop engines failed and the pilot, Capt. Alejandro Calegari, requested permission to return to Cuzco.

SOME people are under the impression the new zoning ordinance was vetoed by Mayor Richard Gerhardt. Not so, says a spokesman for the city planning and zoning commission.

The mayor only vetoed an amendment tacked to the legislation by city council. The amendment governed the placing of outdoor advertising.

The new zoning regulations are in force as presented to council by the planning and zoning commission.

IT'S Better Water for Americans Week. Betcha didn't know that. Mayor Richard Gerhardt has so proclaimed it in Circleville.

Water is pretty important. About 345 billion gallons of it are used daily in the United States. We drink it, wash in it, cook with it, launder our clothes, sprinkle lawns, shave, swim in it, wash the car and a million other things. There are so many uses for water, many might think it is getting scarce. Actually there is plenty of water available.

Unlike coal or oil, it is never used up. We trap it for a while, but finally it runs on, is drawn back into the air by the heat of the sun and falls again as rain.

The problem is gathering the water, purifying it and delivering it to the people. Circleville uses 383 million gallons of water a year. Average daily consumption is 80.8 gallons per person. The city water department serves 13,100.

Chuck Taylor, director of utilities, invites the citizens of Circleville to drop into the water department and find out about this vital natural resource.

In response to a query whether Cambodian observers are flying with American forward air controllers a command spokesman replied: "Yes, when their (the Cambodians) knowledge of the terrain is helpful to the mission."

The question of American air support in Cambodia came into the open last week after correspondents reported seeing U.S. planes flying bombing strikes in direct support of Cambodian troops.

Until that time, the United States maintained that its air strikes in Cambodia were intended only to destroy communist troops and supplies that would threaten American and other allied troops in South Vietnam.

GOP Governors Open Meet, Eye Upcoming Elections

LAKE OF THE OZARKS, Mo. (AP) — Republican governors generally rate President Nixon's popularity high among the voters, and they hope some of it will rub off on their own campaigns in an autumn race against odds which favor Democratic state house gains.

Democrats forecast inroads into the 32-18 majority the Republicans now enjoy among governors, and the chairman of the GOP Governors Association acknowledges the arithmetic favors that outcome.

"We have a very difficult road with 35 governors up and 24 of them now Republican," said Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania, the chairman. "The odds are against us. We're going to do everything we can to fight those odds."

Gov. Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri, a Democrat, said Democrats could fashion a state house comeback as dramatic as that achieved by Republicans after their landslide defeats six years ago, when Lyndon B. Johnson swept to the White House.

With elections three months away, the state executive began three days of business sessions at the 62nd National Governors conference in the guarded luxury of a lakeside resort.

Governor Irked By Rockfest

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — Saying he was "outraged," Michigan Gov. William Milliken today moved to prevent a recurrence of the Goose Lake Rock Festival, a three-day event marked by open selling of drugs and nude bathing.

In Missouri, where he was attending a governors conference, Milliken said he has asked his legal advisor, Joseph T. Thibodeau, to help local officials in their drive to prevent a second festival at Goose Lake Park scheduled for the Labor Day weekend.

No serious illnesses from drug overdoses were reported by show officials. Drug selling was widespread at the festival. Crayoned signs advertising drugs of various kinds were carried by wandering persons or attached to cars and trucks.

Goose Lake Park officials said there were no acts of violence during the festival. Around 400 private guards were hired to watch the area.

"In a comparable city of 300,000 population, there are murders, rapes and robberies. You don't see that here," said a park spokesman.

Size of the festival audience was estimated to be 200,000 persons.

Isaac Annexation Gets Opposition

Pickaway County Commissioners today received a petition containing 74 signatures opposing the annexation of the Isaac Addition to the city of Circleville.

Last week the county solons received a petition containing 86 signatures seeking the annexation.

A hearing date has been scheduled 8 p.m. Oct. 14 to consider the annexation. According to Ohio Law, if an area adjacent to a municipality or incorporated village seeks annexation by petition, the document must be signed by a majority of the land owners.

Prosecuting Attorney Roy Huffer today advised the commissioners to schedule the hearing for the annexation.

HE explained that anyone who had signed either petition could withdraw their names for a period of 20 days. He also pointed out that names could be withdrawn if the signer showed reason at the hearing.

According to commissioners, this is the third time landowners of the area have sought annexation to the city. The area involved is about 55.86 acres and as nearly as can be determined, involves 163 landowners.

The petition for annexation presented last week contained 86 signatures. Huffer noted that if five or more signatures are found invalid or are withdrawn from the petition, the bid for annexation will have failed since it was not signed by a majority of the landowners.

In other business today, the commissioners accepted the resignation of Keith Wagner from the Pickaway County Airport Authority and named Richard L. Davis, 346 Meadow Lane, to serve his unexpired term.

A resolution was approved by commissioners to place a one-half mill levy on the November ballot. Money from the levy will be used for the operation of Brooks-Yates School for Retarded Children.

The commissioners authorized County Engineer Henry McCrady to proceed by force account and replace structure No. 12 on the Circleville Tarlton Road and structure No. 13 on the Circleville Groveport Road with corrugated pipe arches.

A PRIORITY list for Issue I projects were approved by commissioners. Issue I funds are available for elimination of traffic bottlenecks in the county.

Given first priority was the grading, draining and paving of Main St. in Ashville from Walnut St. to Circleville Ave. Estimated cost of the project is $43,500.

7-Year-Old Killed In Fire, Explosion

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Firemen were trying to determine the cause of an explosion and fire in which a 7-year-old Middletown boy was fatally burned Saturday night.

Dean O'Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald O'Grady, died Sunday at Middletown Hospital following the blast and fire in the basement of their home. The lad was the only person at home,

IFI Students Were On Tour Of Inca Ruins

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Forty-nine young American exchange students returning from the Inca ruins at Machu Picchu were reported killed Sunday in the crash of a Peruvian airliner. The Department of Civil Aviation said 99 of the 100 persons aboard died, making it Peru's worst air disaster.

Several other Americans were aboard in addition to the students spending the summer in Peru under the sponsorship of International Fellowship Inc. of Buffalo, N.Y. But their exact number was uncertain.

International Fellowship received from the State Department a list of 49 of its students 14 to 19 years old aboard the plane. But the airline, Lansa, issued a list of 54 Americans aboard which included three other teen-agers, a 21-year-old and four older tourists. The airline listed two of the students on International Fellowship's list as Peruvians, and it was thought some of those it listed as American might be Peruvian.

The airline said the Lockheed Electra carried 91 passengers and seven crew members, but later the Aviation Department said there were two more crew members aboard.

One man, the copilot, survived. He was found in the wreckage of the cockpit.

Most of the passengers had flown to Cuzco, the ancient Inca capital 365 miles southeast of Lima, for an excursion to the Inca ruins at nearby Machu Picchu. After the day of sightseeing, the plane had just taken off from Cuzco for Lima when one of its four turboprop engines failed and the pilot, Capt. Alejandro Calezari, requested permission to return to Cuzco.

SOME people are under the impression the new zoning ordinance was vetoed by Mayor Richard Gerhardt ... Not so, says a spokesman for the city planning and zoning commission ...

IT'S Better Water for Americans Week ... Betcha didn't know that ... Mayor Richard Gerhardt has so proclaimed it in Circleville ...

Water is pretty important ... About 345 billion gallons of it are used daily in the United States ... We drink it, wash in it, cook with it, launder our clothes, sprinkle lawns, shave, swim in it, wash the car and a million other things ... There are so many uses for water, many might think it is getting scarce ... Actually there is plenty of water available ... Unlike coal or oil, it is never used up ... We trap it for a while, but finally it runs on, is drawn back into the air by the heat of the sun and falls again as rain ...

The problem is gathering the water, purifying it and delivering it to the people ... Circleville uses 383 million gallons of water a year ... Average daily consumption is 80.8 gallons per person ... The city water department serves 13,100 ...

Chuck Taylor, director of utilities, invites the citizens of Circleville to drop into the water department and find out about this vital natural resource.

Aid Sought For Victims Of Hurricane

A nationwide appeal, involving all chapters of the American Red Cross, has been launched to provide emergency relief and recovery assistance for victims of Hurricane Celia. The appeal is fully endorsed by the National United Community Fund.

Red Cross assistance is required by more than 15,000 Texas families at costs expected to exceed $6 million. Pickaway County Red Cross Chapter has been asked to provide $826 in assistance.

A survey showed 8,950 homes destroyed; 13,850 homes with major damage; 41,800 homes with minor damage; and extensive damage to trailer and farm buildings.

Donations of aid may be made at the local Red Cross Chapter headquarters, 167 Watt St.

Nixons Return To Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Nixon have returned to the nation's capital after a two-day stay at Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains.

It was quiet weekend for the President. He conferred with advisers H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman on both Saturday and Sunday. He returned to the White House with Mrs. Nixon by helicopter late Sunday afternoon.

David Winks Injured In 2-Car Crash

David F. Winks Jr. was reported in fair condition today at Mercy Hospital of injuries he received in an automobile accident early Sunday morning.

Investigating patrolmen of the Circleville Highway Patrol Post reported Winks, 18, of the A & W Trailer Court, had received serious injuries in the two-car collision north on Route 23 in Franklin County.

Winks' auto crashed into the rear of a vehicle driven by Eugene Fairbanks, 53, of Columbus, shortly after midnight Sunday, just north of Rathmill Road. The accident is still under investigation.

Fairbanks and his wife Margaret, also 53, both received noticeable injuries and were taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital for emergency treatment.

A Laureville woman complained of injuries in a minor accident investigated over the weekend by the Highway Patrol.

Irene A. Kairis, 46, of Route 2, Laureville, reportedly suffered slight injuries in a two-car crash at 3 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. Kairis was cited for failure to keep assured clear distance ahead when she was unable to stop at an intersection and struck an auto which had stopped at the light.

Driver of the second auto was David Lockhart, 26, of Elizabeth, W. Va. None of the six passengers in his auto were injured.

Soviet 'Mercy Flights' For Spying

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union disguised military aircraft as civilian planes and apparently collected radar and photo-intelligence data about U.S. military bases and North American coastal areas during mercy flights to Peru last month, defense sources report.

The sources said these judgments were based on routes flown by the planes and photographs and ground observations of Soviet AN12 and AN22 transports refueling at a base used by the U.S. Air Force and Navy at Keflavik, Iceland.

The Soviets declared the flights were to ferry emergency supplies to earthquake-devastated Peru.

Pictures show the planes were equipped with radar boosters and wing antennas that experts said usually are found on military rather than commercial-type Russian planes.

Also, ground observers reported seeing camera ports closing as Soviet planes landed at Keflavik after making wide, sweeping approaches that gave a broad view of the base.

An AN12 "Pathfinder" plane bound for Peru also was reported to have flown over the Keflavik Naval Air Station in Bermuda, an important U.S. Navy anti-submarine base.

Defense sources said a close-up view of the Soviet aircraft on the ground at Keflavik indicated they had been dressed up rather hastily to look like civilian aircraft by painting on the insignia and markings of Aeroflot, the Russian International airline.

However, the AN12's had gun turrets in their tails.

The AN22s, huge planes somewhat comparable to the American C5, had windows in the nose which experts said could be used by bombardiers.

This was the first indication the Russians considered AN22s a dual purpose plane for use as transports and possibly as bombers.

Sources said the radar boosters could be used to detect and track ships.

—Direct federal sewer and water grants and open space acquisition "toward communities or project areas which will use them to control development rather than to those which merely respond to uncontrolled growth."

—Use home mortgage and interest subsidy programs "to encourage the proper siting and environmental compatibility" of new residential subdivisions.

—Emphasize acquisition of small parks and natural areas near cities.

—Protect "areas of special ecological significance."

Such recommendations, the report said, are only "aspects of a strategy" requiring broader development.

President Sends Congress Message On Environment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today sent Congress a State of the Environment report urging the development of a national land use policy.

The report, prepared by the Council on Environmental Quality, may well be a preview of things to come, although too late for legislative action this year.

It recommends federal encouragement of planned and controlled land development, protecting areas of scenic and recreational value.

Economic incentives emerge throughout the wide-ranging report as one of the major tools to be used by the federal government in attacking environmental problems.

The report warns that man's activities are already altering the world's climate in ways that could bring on a catastrophe.

So little is known about this, however, that the Council was undecided whether it might emerge as a man-made ice age or—just the opposite effect—a melting of the polar ice caps and flooding of large land areas.

In sending the report—the first of its kind—to Capitol Hill, Nixon reminded Congress of the major environmental proposals he has already submitted, which still await Congressional action.

But the Council, only half a year old and in practical operation scarcely four months, also offered some new proposals, giving special attention to the problems of land use.

It said the federal government should:

—Use existing project approval authority to encourage cluster zoning and timed development.

—Direct federal sewer and water grants and open space acquisition "toward communities or project areas which will use them to control development rather than to those which merely respond to uncontrolled growth."

—Use home mortgage and interest subsidy programs "to encourage the proper siting and environmental compatibility" of new residential subdivisions.

—Emphasize acquisition of small parks and natural areas near cities.

—Protect "areas of special ecological significance."

Such recommendations, the report said, are only "aspects of a strategy" requiring broader development.

National Guard May Pull Out Of Lima Today

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — National Guard officials were waiting to see if Lima remained calm today before deciding when to pull out 500 troops.

Funeral services and a mourners' march were planned today for Christine Rick, 45, the Negro woman whose death touched off rioting Wednesday night.

She was shot by police after reportedly grabbing the gun of a patrolman who was arresting a youth.

Police reported the city was quiet over the weekend.

Mayor Christian P. Morris lifted a dusk-to-dawn curfew Saturday night, but a state of emergency, including a ban on carrying weapons of any sort, remained in effect.

What Age?

To this frequent question from patients, the answer is: "There is no best age, chiropractic care should start shortly after birth and continue through life." Children respond most rapidly to chiropractic care. However if you have a question — at any age — it's best to check with your chiropractor immediately for it could save you time, money and serious health problems for your children in their formative years.

Successful chiropractic care requires more than just the chiropractor's skill, it requires teamwork between patient, parent and chiropractor. Certain chiropractic cases are impossible unless the patient follows thoroughly the instructions given. It's up to the patient to work in harmony with his doctor of chiropractic.

Presented in the public interest for better health through chiropractic by the Circleville Chiropractic Center under the auspices of the Central Ohio Chiropractic Association.

Fourth priority was given to replacing a bridge in the village of New Holland on the New Holland - Bloomingburg Pike. The present structure, which is 13 feet wide, provides the only access from the village to its cemetery. The commissioners recommended it be replaced with a 28-foot wide structure at a cost of $22,260.

Commissioners Wayne Hines, Charles Morris and Dick T. Tootle were all present for today's meeting.

Aid Sought For Victims Of Hurricane

A nationwide appeal, involving all chapters of the American Red Cross, has been launched to provide emergency relief and recovery assistance for victims of Hurricane Celia. The appeal is fully endorsed by the National United Community Fund.

Red Cross assistance is required by more than 15,000 Texas families at costs expected to exceed $6 million. Pickaway County Red Cross Chapter has been asked to provide $826 in assistance.

A survey showed 8,950 homes destroyed; 13,850 homes with major damage; 41,800 homes with minor damage; and extensive damage to trailer and farm buildings.

Donations of aid may be made at the local Red Cross Chapter headquarters, 167 Watt St.

Nixons Return To Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Nixon have returned to the nation's capital after a two-day stay at Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains.

It was quiet weekend for the President. He conferred with advisers H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman on both Saturday and Sunday. He returned to the White House with Mrs. Nixon by helicopter late Sunday afternoon.

scattering bodies over a wide area.

Lansia officials said the airline was sending a plane to Cuzco today to bring the bodies to Lima.

International Fellowship said the students, among 400 Americans spending 45 days with Peruvian families, were accompanied by 14 Peruvian youngsters, including Marisel Bedoya Vivanco, 16, daughter of a former Lima mayor.

Officials said the tour was an optional part of the vacation program during which students participate in organized activities while staying with their host families. The company president, Mildred Brown of Buffalo, left today for Peru.

The student victims were from New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Ohio, Maine, Wisconsin, Georgia, Maryland, North Carolina, Illinois and Pennsylvania, the company said.

Peru's worst previous air crash occurred eight years ago when 97 persons died in the crash of a Varig Airlines plane near Lima.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Four Ohioans were among 49 U.S. students reported killed in the Peruvian air disaster Sunday. Their names were released today by the International Fellowship Inc., which said the information was relayed by the U.S. State Department.

The Ohioans were identified as:

Jeffery A. Russell, 17, of Bolivar.

Marjorie K. Rook, 17, of Sullivan.

Ann M. Morrow, 18, of Greenwich.

Jennifer L. Phillips, about 18, of Cardington.

Two Injured In 1-Car Mishap

Two persons were injured in a one-car accident at 5 p.m. Sunday on Route 207 near the Fayette County line.

Sharon Kay Perkins, 18, Columbus, and Sherry Lynn Perkins, seven weeks, were treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital for abrasions when a car driven by William E. Perkins, 19, Columbus, left the road and went into the drain ditch.

Perkins told Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Earl Kuhn he was traveling northwest on Route 207 when a passing car forced him off the road.

Boat And Camper Submerge At Dam

Brake failure was believed to be the cause of a school bus camper and boat trailer ending up in 20 feet of water Sunday at Deer Creek Dam.

Park Patrolmen Homer Long and Archie Rawlinson reported the bus and trailer, belonging to Beacher Ferguson, Jamestown, was being backed down to the water at the west boat ramp when both continued into the water and submerged about 4:30 p.m.

The bus and trailer were finally removed from the water at 10:40 p.m. Sunday.

What Age?

To this frequent question from patients, the answer is: "There is no best age, chiropractic care should start shortly after birth and continue through life." Children respond most rapidly to chiropractic care. However if you have a question — at any age — it's best to check with your chiropractor immediately for it could save you time, money and serious health problems for your children in their formative years.

Successful chiropractic care requires more than just the chiropractor's skill, it requires teamwork between patient, parent and chiropractor. Certain chiropractic cases are impossible unless the patient follows thoroughly the instructions given. It's up to the patient to work in harmony with his doctor of chiropractic.

David Winks Injured In 2-Car Crash

David F. Winks Jr. was reported in fair condition today at Mercy Hospital of injuries he received in an automobile accident early Sunday morning.

Investigating patrolmen of the Circleville Highway Patrol Post reported Winks, 18, of the A & W Trailer Court, had received serious injuries in the two-car collision north on Route 23 in Franklin County.

Winks' auto crashed into the rear of a vehicle driven by Eugene Fairbanks, 53, of Columbus, shortly after midnight Sunday, just north of Rathmill Road. The accident is still under investigation.

Fairbanks and his wife Margaret, also 53, both received noticeable injuries and were taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital for emergency treatment.

A Laurelville woman complained of injuries in a minor accident investigated over the weekend by the Highway Patrol.

Irene A. Kairis, 46, of Route 2, Laurelville, reportedly suffered slight injuries in a two-car crash at 3 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. Kairis was cited for failure to keep assured clear distance ahead when she was unable to stop at an intersection and struck an auto which had stopped at the light.

Driver of the second auto was David Lockhart, 26, of Elizabeth, W. Va. None of the six passengers in his auto were injured.

Soviet 'Mercy Flights' For Spying

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union disguised military aircraft as civilian planes and apparently collected radar and photo-intelligence data about U.S. military bases and North American coastal areas during mercy flights to Peru last month, defense sources report.

The sources said these judgments were based on routes flown by the planes and photographs and ground observations of Soviet AN12 and AN22 transports refueling at a base used by the U.S. Air Force and Navy at Keflavik, Iceland.

The Soviets declared the flights were to ferry emergency supplies to earthquake-devastated Peru.

Pictures show the planes were equipped with radar boosters and wing antennas that experts said usually are found on military rather than commercial-type Russian planes.

Also, ground observers reported seeing camera ports closing as Soviet planes landed at Keflavik after making wide, sweeping approaches that gave a broad view of the base.

An AN12 "Pathfinder" plane bound for Peru also was reported to have flown over the Keflavik Naval Air Station in Bermuda, an important U.S. Navy anti-submarine base.

Defense sources said a close-up view of the Soviet aircraft on the ground at Keflavik indicated they had been dressed up rather hastily by painting on the insignia and markings of Aeroflot, the Russian International airline.

However, the AN12's had gun turrets in their tails.

The AN22s, huge planes somewhat comparable to the American C5, had windows in the nose which experts said could be used by bombardiers.

This was the first indication the Russians considered AN22s a dual purpose plane for use as transports and possibly as bombers.

Sources said the radar boosters

It said the federal government should:

—Use existing project-approval authority to encourage cluster zoning and timed development.

—Direct federal sewer and water grants and open space acquisition "toward communities or project areas which will use them to control development rather than to those which merely respond to uncontrolled growth."

—Use home mortgage and interest subsidy programs "to encourage the proper siting and environmental compatibility" of new residential subdivisions.

—Emphasize acquisition of small parks and natural areas near cities.

—Protect "areas of special ecological significance."

Such recommendations, the report said, are only "aspects of a strategy" requiring broader development.

President Sends Congress Message On Environment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon today sent Congress a State of the Environment report urging the development of a national land use policy.

The report, prepared by the Council on Environmental Quality, may well be a preview of things to come, although too late for legislative action this year.

It recommends federal encouragement of planned and controlled land development, protecting areas of scenic and recreational value.

Economic incentives emerge throughout the wide-ranging report as one of the major tools to be used by the federal government in attacking environmental problems.

The costs of cleaning up environmental pollution, it emphasizes, must be allocated throughout society in the prices charged for products and services.

The report warns that man's activities are already altering the world's climate in ways that could bring on a catastrophe.

So little is known about this, however, that the Council was undecided whether it might emerge as a man-made ice age or—just the opposite effect—a melting of the polar ice caps and flooding of large land areas.

In sending the report—the first of its kind—to Capitol Hill, Nixon reminded Congress of the major environmental proposals he has already submitted, which still await Congressional action.

But the Council, only half a year old and in practical operation scarcely four months, also offered some new proposals, giving special attention to the problems of land use.

67-Year-Old Romeo A Bird To Watch

DEAR ABBY: I cannot remain silent after reading about that 67-year-old man making a play for his 88-year-old sister-in-law. This man needs help all right. What he needs is a woman who is ready, willing and able. I'd guess that his wife is able, but she is neither ready nor willing. The fact that the object of his affections is an 88-year-old woman is perhaps unusual, but it sets no precedent.

And I'll tell you something else, too. Eighty-eight-year old Mamma may not be as dismayed by his attentions as is her daughter. I was a good man at 67, and still lack a lot of being dead at 79, and I resent your inferring that a 67-year-old man is a doddering old dodo.

Your answer, "Speak to the man as you would to a 'naughty boy,'" irked me.

Dear Abby, just wait until you are 67 and see if you want some patronizing person talking to you as if you are a 10-year-old "naughty girl." Very truly yours,

Gorman Resigns Penn Central's Top Position

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Paul A. Gorman, named boss of the $6.8 billion Penn Central Co. in a management shakeup two months ago, says he will resign.

Gorman, 62, said he is quitting because court-appointed trustees are running the nation's biggest railroad and he has nothing to do.

Gorman announced his resignation Friday while testifying in Washington before the Senate Finance Committee.

Gorman is board chairman, president and chief executive officer of the parent holding company and its railroad subsidiary, Penn Central Transportation Co.

Blaze Damages Findlay Station

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — A fire that apparently started in a ceiling light fixture caused heavy damage to main control room facilities at WFIN radio Sunday, but the AM-FM station continued operating.

No one was hurt in the fire, which also resulted in water damage to radio station equipment and a savings and loan office downstairs. There was no cost estimate on damage.

SECOND NATIONAL BANK
MASTER CHARGE

FULL PROTECTION FOR YOU AGAINST LOSS, THEFT, OR UNAUTHORIZED USE

Just one year ago the Second National Bank introduced Master Charge, "the go-ahead card for get-ahead people." This new fun way to shop gave area shoppers a new high in convenience. Merchants liked it, too! Other credit card services that people liked soon followed. By adding your picture to the back of the card, you received the benefit of quick identification; then the check cashing guarantee feature was added. The card came in handy on vacations, for back to school needs, for Christmas shopping. The fans went wild during our "3 or 3" promotion during March and April. Here we go again! Now you are completely relieved of all worry about carrying your Master Charge card. You are fully protected against purchases made on your card should it be lost, stolen or receive unauthorized use. Of course, you will want to contact the bank immediately should your card disappear or should your monthly statement contain any unauthorized purchases. Master Charge will turn you on. Apply at:

DEAR ABBY: I am a hairdresser in one of the better shops in town. The tips here run a dollar for a shampoo and set, so you know our clientele isn't exactly cheap.

We have a money-hungry operator here I'll call "Susie" who talks her customers into "conditioners," treatments and color, whether they need it or not. She brags that she sells her customers haircuts, then a perm, followed by another haircut (cutting all the perm off), followed by another perm, and so on. She pulls every trick in the book to run up the customer's bill. She makes the rest of us look like a bunch of pikers.

Now Susie has a new one. She has a piggy bank in her booth with a sign over it, "SEND SUSIE TO JAMAICA." We think this is pretty crummy. What do you think?

THE OTHER OPERATORS
DEAR OPERATORS: I think all you operators ought to buy Susie the ticket! (One way.)

DEAR ABBY: How important are table manners? I am married to a very fine young man who is kind and considerate, and I really do love him, but Abby, his table manners are unbelievable! We've been married only 4 months, and I admit I noticed this before we were married, but I thought I could change him later.

He eats just like an animal. He piles so much food on his plate that it slops over the edges, and soon it's all over the tablecloth. He fills his mouth full, chews with his mouth half open, and he eats like someone is going to take the food away from him. He doesn't use a napkin. He wipes his mouth with his bread.

Naturally, I don't invite anyone for dinner. Is there a book that tells how to eat properly? I hate to nag him, and little hints like, "Please slow up, Honey," or, "Please close your mouth when you chew, Darling," don't seem to get through to him. Except for this one fault, he's a wonderful guy.

FRAZLED NERVES
DEAR FRAZLED: There are books to teach one which fork to use, but your husband needs more than that. Will all the love and kindness you can muster, give him a palatable eating lesson and teach him everything he needs to know. And if he's as "wonderful" as you say he is, he'll thank you for it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO C. J. P.: Urge him to put his affairs in order. He may live.

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — A fire that apparently started in a ceiling light fixture caused heavy damage to main control room facilities at WFIN radio Sunday, but the AM-FM station continued operating.

No one was hurt in the fire, which also resulted in water damage to radio station equipment and a savings and loan office downstairs. There was no cost estimate on damage.

Gorman Resigns Penn Central's Top Position

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Paul A. Gorman, named boss of the $6.8 billion Penn Central Co. in a management shakeup two months ago, says he will resign.

Gorman, 62, said he is quitting because court-appointed trustees are running the nation's biggest railroad and he has nothing to do.

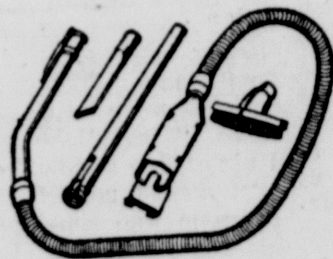

Gorman announced his resignation Friday while testifying in Washington before the Senate Finance Committee.

Gorman is board chairman, president and chief executive officer of the parent holding company and its railroad subsidiary, Penn Central Transportation Co.

FULL PROTECTION FOR YOU AGAINST LOSS, THEFT, OR UNAUTHORIZED USE

Just one year ago the Second National Bank introduced Master Charge, "the go-ahead card for get-ahead people." This new fun way to shop gave area shoppers a new high in convenience. Merchants liked it, too! Other credit card services that people liked soon followed. By adding your picture to the back of the card, you received the benefit of quick identification; then the check cashing guarantee feature was added. The card came in handy on vacations, for back to school needs, for Christmas shopping. The fans went wild during our "3 or 3" promotion during March and April. Here we go again! Now you are completely relieved of all worry about carrying your Master Charge card. You are fully protected against purchases made on your card should it be lost, stolen or receive unauthorized use. Of course, you will want to contact the bank immediately should your card disappear or should your monthly statement contain any unauthorized purchases.

Master Charge will turn you on. Apply at:

No More Festivals

Most adults do not dig rock sounds, and they almost unanimously do not like some of the accompaniments to a rock scene — the drug freaks, the exhibitionists and the undisciplined troublemakers.

Because promoters of rock festivals, the participants and local law officers all have been unable to keep the

No one can fault the adults for wanting no more festivals, particularly after Chicago's Grant Park riots.

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

What is it women really want?

This question has created a great deal of honest male bewilderment in the wake of the new women's liberation movement.

Among the stated aims of the movement are these: child care centers, equal pay for equal work, an end to job discrimination, abortion on demand, equality with men at every level, and a refusal to be treated as mere sexual objects.

While some of these aims are laudable and some debatable, others probably aren't even desired by a majority of women themselves.

"I don't want to be put on a par with men," said a practical unmarried young lady of my acquaintance. "Then I'd have to do everything myself. I like the system as it works now. If I need something done, I can get some guy to do it for me."

What puzzles the average man most, however, is why women should want to be equal with him when he already feels he is unequal to them. Do they want to turn the clock backward?

4 Russian Cities Hit By Cholera

MOSCOW (AP)—Four major industrial cities have been closed to foreign tourists as Soviet health authorities continue efforts to localize an outbreak of cholera.

The travel agency Intourist said today all tours to Astrakhan, Volgograd (formerly Stalingrad), Ulyanovsk and Odessa have been canceled for an indefinite period.

No reason was given to the hundreds of travelers who had booked tours to those cities, but it was presumed to be a precautionary measure against spreading the disease.

An unspecified number of cholera cases were reported Thursday in Astrakhan, the city of 400,000 at the mouth of the Volga River, about 900 miles south of Moscow.

Intourist today confirmed that Volgograd and Ulyanovsk, about halfway upriver toward Moscow, also had been added to the list. But there was no word whether cases had been spotted in those cities.

Odessa, the port city of 776,000 on the Black Sea, was closed apparently for the same reason, but the Black Sea resorts of Yalta and Sochi were reported still open to tourists.

Of all the rollicking tidbits in Tom Wood's book, "The Bright Side of Billy Wilder," I like best the account of the filming of one scene in "Irma La Douce," in which a miniature poodle named "Coquette" had to lap up the entire contents of an overturned bottle of champagne at a single sitting. To entice the dog, a prop man supplied some lukewarm chicken soup with which to fill an empty bottle of Mumm's best Cordon Rouge champagne. After the dog had lapped it up greedily without a stop, Billy Wilder picked up the bottle, examined it carefully, then confessed, "I didn't know 1957 was such a good year for chicken soup."

Saturday's Answer

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Are there any new ways to prevent the bed sores that we find so frequently in the elderly patients at our nursing home?

Miss C.S.C., Washington Dear Miss C.: Pressure sores remain one of the severe threats to the health of all people confined to bed for a long period.

In a recent article, I pointed out that good nursing care, frequent changes of position and lubrication of the skin are helpful in the prevention of these pressure sores.

I have just seen a remarkable device known as the Stryker Flotation Pad. It contains a highly elastic substance that adds a much needed safety factor to the problems of the bedridden.

The Stryker Pad can be used both in prevention and in part of the intensive care after surgery for the control of these ulcers.

The Flotation Pad can be used to protect the buttocks, the heels and the elbows, all areas subjected to weight and pressure in the bedridden and the wheel chair patient.

The pad is 16 inches square. It contains a special silicone gel, covered by a thin extremely elastic membrane. It protects bony areas of the body by acting as a thick layer of artificial fat tissue.

Preventive nursing care is the key to reducing these unnecessary complications of bedridden and wheel chair patients.

Do all people past the age of 50 have arthritis of the bone? Whether they do or not, I have it and wonder if this just keeps progressing.

Mrs. J. K., Idaho Dear Mrs. K.: I assume that what you mean by "arthritis of the bone" is osteoarthritis. This is a disorder of joints which occurs frequently as we grow older. Actually, it is the result of mechanical pressure on the joints which takes place by the normal use of our limbs.

The condition is not a serious one and only rarely is it disabling or crippling. It may take some of us a little longer to get the "cricks" out of our body after we have been in one position for too long.

It is suggested that people who are driving an automobile for a long period should get out and limber up their joints, their muscles and increase their blood circulation. Maintaining a good weight, gentle massage and heat can bring relief from the discomfort of this type of arthritis. Some of the new medicines now available are remarkably effective in controlling the pain.

The elderly or infirm should not lock themselves in the bathroom. A sign on the door, for modesty, is sufficient.

Israelis Would Use A-Bomb

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

This column made a couple of guesses the other day, or maybe deductions would be a better word for it. Briefly, it surmised that Egypt's President Nasser wants to cool it in the Middle East because (a) he has suddenly realized that the Israelis have the atom bomb and have let it be known that if they are pushed to an extremity they will use it, and (b) he fears that the discovery of big oil sources in the North Sea will soon make western Europe independent of Arab oil.

How shrewd the guesses are only time will tell. Nobody will give official confirmation to the bit about Israel having a nuclear capacity. But now comes Hanson Baldwin, former military editor of the New York Times, with a book, "Strategy for Tomorrow," which will be published by Harper and Row on August 19. I went to work with Baldwin for the Times some forty-four years ago, and I have never known him to make an unconsidered or untrue statement. The Times should never have retired him; his military reporting has trailed off badly since he left. Hanson Baldwin is still hard at work cultivating his own sources. Knowing his character, I'd trust his book as much as any Times story he ever wrote.

What he says about Israel and the bomb is this: "There should be no doubt about it, the Middle East is a powder keg and the U.S. interests in the area are major. Israel is already the world's sixth atomic power; she has nuclear weapons or the capability of assembling them quickly. She has rockets of sufficient range to reach from her borders to the major Arab capitals. And her peoples and her government possess the ruthlessness and the determination to use — in extremis — any and all means to survive."

What Nasser must realize is that the Israelis, many of whom had relatives who perished in the gas chambers of Hitler's Germany, are not going to be deprived of the country which they have conjured out of the desert.

It is a sanctuary and a refuge which they did not have in the days of the death camps of Dachau and Buchenwald. Possession of their own nation has changed their character; instead of bowing meekly to the buffets of fate, which is the lot of all stateless people, they have developed a formidable ability to fight back. Moshe Dayan, the hero of the six-day war, is their symbol and image. If extinction threatens as it threatened in Hitler's day, they will assuredly use whatever nuclear capacity they possess to pull their enemies down with them. Moshe Dayan may not have Samson's big head of hair (which supposedly gave great strength), but he is quite capable of pulling the whole Middle East edifice down if it should ever come to that.

The main trouble in the Middle East is that the Palestine Arab guerrillas are a technologically illiterate breed, and the Israelis and the Syrians are not much better. They may not appreciate what nuclear weapons might do. The guerrillas take their thinking from Mao Tse-tung, whose followers in Vietnam and Cambodia are used to dealing with the gentlemanly Americans who would never — no, never for fear of "world opinion." Obviously Mao Tse-tung and his Southeast Asian disciples have caused the United States for what it is, a latter-day Rome that has lost any stomach for exercising the world power thrust upon it after World War II. We are paralyzed by "liberals" who are dominated by a death wish. But the Israelis, having no death wish, are paradoxically willing to die to protect their national heritage. They are not going unprovokedly to a passive Buchenwald destiny twice.

Nasser has presumably gotten the idea. Whether the guerrillas can be brought over is another story.

Police To Walk Out Of Danger

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Members of Atlanta's Fraternal Order of Police will stay back and wait for help any time they are confronted by a criminal with a weapon more powerful than the officer's city-issued pistol, says John Melton, order president.

"Chief Herbert Jenkins said he didn't expect the men to lay their lives on the line, but to walk off," Melton said Thursday in a statement.

"That is what we will do from now on."

The statement was in response to the aldermanic police committee's denial of the group's request that city policemen be issued shotguns, chemical mace and blackjacks.

Jenkins has said these weapons are unnecessary in routine police work.

Richard Penn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Penn, Pickaway Twp., returned after participating in a scientific expedition to the Colorado Rockies.

The Grand Theater attraction, "The Pace That Kills" created controversy and discussion from local moviegoers. The story was an expose of the dope racket — considered a very vital issue then.

Don Ho Lands Deal

By BOB THOMAS

AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Waikiki commuter Don Ho has one of the sweetest deals in show business—$6.5 million for the next five years—but little time to enjoy it.

Don Ho is a low-key entertainer who could make Perry Como seem as nervous as Don Knotts. But there's a lot of wit and considerable talent in the easy-going performances for Hawaiian tourists.

Recently Cinerama, which has branched into the hotel business in Hawaii, announced a five-year contract with Ho that will pay him $24,500 per week eight months a year—or 12 months, if he chooses to stay at home instead of playing Las Vegas and other mainland spots.

Cinerama is so high on its new boy that it will build a million-dollar night club for him at the Reef Hotel on the beach at Waikiki.

"It's all kinda hard to believe," says Ho. "Especially when you figure I was making $2,500 a week three years ago and paying the band out of that, too."

The Cinerama contract goes beyond singing "Pearly Shells" nightly for the visitors in the Aloha shirts.

"It also includes films and development projects," Ho said. "Cinerama will help promote my records, and will run a short film I'm making in its theaters. Not just here, but in theaters in Europe, where I'm known."

"I'm not too keen on doing a movie. Maybe I could do one where I'm not an actor. I might just do one movie and quit."

Ho was in Hollywood to record his next album, his first with such Hawaiian standards as "Sweet Leilani," "Blue Hawaii," "Beyond the Reef," etc. He has long eschewed such island trade marks in favor of newer, more pop Hawaiian tunes "Tiny Bubbles," "One Paddle, Two Paddle," etc.

"I waited until I could find someone who could give those old songs a kind of Bacharach feel," said the singer. His arranger is Don Costa, who has worked with Andy Williams and Frank Sinatra.

The recordings have to be done here—"there just aren't enough good musicians in Hawaii." That has meant regular flights on his Sunday off from Duke Kahanamoku, where he is finishing up his contract.

Twenty times this year he has spent 24 hours in Hollywood, then has flown back for the Monday night show in Waikiki.

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

What is it women really want?

This question has created a great deal of honest male bewilderment in the wake of the new women's liberation movement.

Among the stated aims of the movement are these: child care centers, equal pay for equal work, an end to job discrimination, abortion on demand, equality with men at every level, and a refusal to be treated as mere sexual objects.

While some of these aims are laudable and some debatable, others probably aren't even desired by a majority of women themselves.

"I don't want to be put on a par with men," said a practical unmarried young lady of my acquaintance. "Then I'd have to do everything myself. I like the system as it works now. If I need something done, I can get some guy to do it for me."

What puzzles the average man most, however, is why women should want to be equal with him when he already feels he is unequal to them. Do they want to turn the clock backward?

The liberation-seeking ladies protest the chauvinism of the American male, but to the men of the rest of the world the American man is an object of ridicule for what they feel is his object servility to women.

While he is still waddling around in his diapers, a little boy is able to punch a toy-stealing little girl in the mouth as if she were just another ordinary human being.

But in kindergarten he is taught that little girls are superior and extraordinary human beings made of delicate fibers, spanked into saluting them, and he goes on saluting them until the end of his days. The female sex gains an edge on him it never loses.

It is not men but women who have the better union in America.

A man is also expected to marry a woman when she wants him to, name his kids after her side of the family, and work himself to death earning the money to buy her a bigger car, a nicer home, more expensive vacation trips, and a better hair dryer than the wife next door has.

When he does die, it is further expected of him that he will have had the gallantry and foresight to leave her enough money so that she can spend comfortably, if not luxuriously, the seven or eight years of widowhood she will enjoy before joining him in his tomb—the one she chose, not him.

Does all this sound like he treated her like a mere sexual object?

What do women really want? There are days when the average man feels that what they want is "all there is — and whatever is left."

Whatever they want, men don't have it. They've been giving everything they had to women for quite some time now.

Of all the rollicking tidbits in Tom Wood's book, "The Bright Side of Billy Wilder," I like best the account of the filming of one scene in "Irma La Douce," in which a miniature poodle named "Coquette" had to lap up the entire contents of an overturned bottle of champagne at a single sitting. To entice the dog, a prop man supplied some lukewarm chicken soup with which to fill an empty bottle of Mumm's best Cordon Rouge champagne. After the dog had lapped it up greedily without a stop, Billy Wilder picked up the bottle, examined it carefully, then confessed, "I didn't know 1957 was such a good year for chicken soup."

CAMPUS CUT-UPS:

From Bennington:

A professor chalked up on his blackboard this notice: "Professor Berner will not meet his classes this week." A Junior playfully rubbed out the letter "c" from the word "classes." But Professor Berner had the last word. He rubbed out the initial letter of "lasses."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Are there any new ways to prevent the bed sores that we find so frequently in the elderly patients at our nursing home?

Miss C.S.C., Washington Dear Miss C.: Pressure sores remain one of the severe threats to the health of all people confined to bed for a long period.

In a recent article, I pointed out that good nursing care, frequent changes of position and lubrication of the skin are helpful in the prevention of these pressure sores.

I have just seen a remarkable device known as the Stryker Floation Pad. It contains a highly elastic substance that adds a much needed safety factor to the problems of the bedridden.

The Stryker Pad can be used both in prevention and in part of the intensive care after surgery for the control of these ulcers.

The Floation Pad can be used to protect the buttocks, the heels and the elbows, all areas subjected to weight and pressure in the bedridden and the wheel chair patient.

The pad is 16 inches square. It contains a special silicone gel, covered by a thin extremely elastic membrane. It protects bony areas of the body by acting as a thick layer of artificial fat tissue.

Preventive nursing care is the key to reducing these unnecessary complications of bedridden and wheel chair patients.

Do all people past the age of 50 have arthritis of the bone? Whether they do or not, I have it and wonder if this just keeps progressing.

Mrs. J. K. Idaho Dear Mrs. K.: I assume that what you mean by "arthritis of the bone" is osteoarthritis. This is a disorder of joints which occurs frequently as we grow older. Actually, it is the result of mechanical pressure on the joints which takes place by the normal use of our limbs.

The condition is not a serious one and only rarely is it disabling or crippling. It may take some of us a little longer to get the "cricks" out of our body after we have been in one position for too long.

It is suggested that people who are driving an automobile for a long period should get out and limber up their joints, their muscles and increase their blood circulation.

Maintaining a good weight, gentle massage and heat can bring relief from the discomfort of this type of arthritis. Some of the new medicines now available are remarkably effective in controlling the pain.

The elderly or infirm should not lock themselves in the bathroom. A sign on the door, for modesty, is sufficient.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, Aug. 10, the 222nd day of 1970. There are 143 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history.

On this date in 1792, France's monarchy was overthrown as mobs in Paris attacked the palace of King Louis VI.

On this date:

In 1809, the struggle for independence from Spain began in Ecuador.

In 1821, Missouri became the 24th state.

In 1845, the U.S. Naval Academy was established at Annapolis, Md.

In 1914, France declared war on Austria-Hungary at the start of World War I.

In 1921, Franklin D. Roosevelt was stricken with polio at his summer home at Campobello Island in Canada.

In 1945, the Japanese offered to surrender in World War II if the emperor would be permitted to keep his throne.

Ten years ago—the U.S. Senate ratified a 12-nation treaty dedicating the antarctic to peaceful pursuits.

Five years ago — President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a $7.5 billion housing bill containing a rent subsidy provision.

One year ago — The Apollo 11 astronauts were cleared to leave quarantine in Houston 18 days after their moon flight.

Dr. Irwin I. Lubowe, Clinical Professor of Dermatology, explains that accumulations of soot and dust affect resident bacterial growth on the skin and interfere with its normal activity. Other pollutants he names as detrimental to skin are fly ash and animal droppings.

Israelis Would Use A-Bomb

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

This column made a couple of guesses the other day, or maybe deductions would be a better word for it. Briefly, it surmised that Egypt's President Nasser wants to cool it in the Middle East because (a) he has suddenly realized that the Israelis have the atom bomb and have let it be known that if they are pushed to an extremity they will use it, and (b) he fears that the discovery of big oil sources in the North Sea will soon make western Europe independent of Arab oil.

How shrewd the guesses are only time will tell. Nobody will give official confirmation to the bit about Israel having a nuclear capacity. But now comes Hanson Baldwin, former military editor of the New York Times, with a book, "Strategy for Tomorrow," which will be published by Harper and Row on August 19. I went to work with Baldwin for the Times some forty-four years ago, on practically the same day, and I have never known him to make an unconsidered or untrue statement. The Times should never have retired him; his military reporting has trailed off badly since he left. Hanson Baldwin is still hard at work cultivating his own sources. Knowing his character, I'd trust his book as much as any Times story he ever wrote.

What he says about Israel and the bomb is this: "There should be no doubt about it, the Middle East is a powder keg and the U.S. interests in the area are major. Israel is already the world's sixth atomic power; she has nuclear weapons or the capability of assembling them quickly. She has rockets of sufficient range to reach from her borders to the major Arab capitals. And her peoples and her government possess the ruthlessness and the determination to use — in extremis — any and all means to survive."

What Nasser must realize is that the Israelis, many of whom had relatives who perished in the gas chambers of Hitler's Germany, are not going to be deprived of the country which they have conjured out of the desert.

It is a sanctuary and a refuge which they did not have in the days of the death camps of Dachau and Buchenwald. Possession of their own nation has changed their character; instead of bowing meekly to the buffets of fate, which is the lot of all stateless people, they have developed a formidable ability to fight back. Moshe Dayan, the hero of the six-day war, is their symbol and image. If extinction threatens as it threatened in Hitler's day, they will assuredly use whatever nuclear capacity they possess to pull their enemies down with them. Moshe Dayan may not have Samson's big head of hair (which supposedly gave great strength), but he is quite capable of pulling the whole Middle East edifice down if it should ever come to that.

The main trouble in the Middle East is that the Palestine Arab guerrillas are a technologically illiterate breed, and the Israelis and the Syrians are not much better. They may not appreciate what nuclear weapons might do. The guerrillas take their thinking from Mao Tse-tung, whose followers in Vietnam and Cambodia are used to dealing with the gentlemanly Americans who would never — no, never for fear of "world opinion." Obviously Mao Tse-tung and his Southeast Asian disciples have cast the United States for what it is, a latter-day Rome that has lost any stomach for exercising the world power thrust upon it after World War II. We are paralyzed by "liberals" who are dominated by a death wish. But the Israelis, having no death wish, are paradoxically willing to die to protect their national heritage. They are not going unopposedly to a passive Buchenwald destiny twice.

Nasser has presumably gotten the idea. Whether the guerrillas can be brought over is another story.

Police To Walk Out Of Danger

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Members of Atlanta's Fraternal Order of Police will stay back and wait for help any time they are confronted by a criminal with a weapon more powerful than the officer's city-issued pistol, says John Melton, order president.

"Chief Herbert Jenkins said he didn't expect the men to lay their lives on the line, but to walk off," Melton said Thursday in a statement.

"That is what we will do from now on."

The statement was in response to the aldermanic police committee's denial of the group's request that city policemen be issued shotguns, chemical mace and blackjacks.

Jenkins has said these weapons are unnecessary in routine police work.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — One of television's most attractive father images is played by a determined bachelor: Bill Bixby. With 11 new episodes of "The Courtship of Eddie's Father," already completed, Bixby sailed into the ABC studio commissary, still disturbed by a scene he had just finished.

"I just hit Brandon for the first time," Bixby said with tragic emphasis, referring to 8-year-old Brandon Cruz who plays his son Eddie. "It was important that I give him a good belt on the bottom. Tears sprang into his eyes and he said, 'You don't love me.'"

"I think it is very important that other kids have a chance to see what parents go through when they have to punish them."

During the ABC series' first season, the relationship between the widower father and his son — between Bixby and Brandon — really-made the difference between a routine situation comedy and a warm often touching relationship. One result is that Bixby has heard opinions on parenthood from many—young and old.

"When I go out on the beach at Malibu, it's like I'm a Pied Piper, the way kids flock around. They don't touch, they just follow," he said.

"I get fascinating mail and I read every line of it. From kids from 5 to high school. Even college students. One guy stopped me in a parking lot to tell me he and his son never really had much communication. But now they go into a room alone together to watch my show. The wife and the daughter watch it, too, but in another room."

"And after its over, they have a question and answer period, just the two of them."

As Bixby paused to attack a medium-rare hamburger, Brandon bounced up to the table and hurled himself against Bixby's arm, talking excitedly about a trip in a camper he will take with his real family during the show's approaching hiatus.

"For six months before we started the series, Brandon and I spent a lot of time together, just becoming friends," Bixby said after the boy left. "I didn't want to try for a father relationship, just friends."

On camera and off, Bixby wears a little golden charm on a chain around his neck. It is a replica of a small hand being held in a larger one—"Eddie's hand inside my hand, because we all wanted to have something relating to this special thing."

NBC has lowered the boom on its daytime "Life with Linkletter" after less than a year's run.

The theory didn't work in execution and at the end of September the program will be replaced by "Words and Music," a game show starring Wink Martindale.

Plan Collection Of Used Glass

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Remember those old glass bottles and containers, the ones you've never bothered to return?

Well, for Toledo area residents, that old glass will be worth a penny per pound.

Owens-Illinois, Inc., announced plans Friday to pay for glass containers as part of a pilot program to reduce solid wastes, recycle glass for use as new containers and pave a parking lot.

Officials of the company expect to collect 325 tons of glass at three points in the Toledo area Aug. 21-22.

Plans are to ship the collected glass to Charlotte, Mich., or Gas City, Ind., where it will be remelted and remade into containers.

College Coed Sparks Drive To Help Elderly Persons

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — Patty Nelson is the prime mover of the "Spring and Autumn Alliance," a program that has put 50 college students into personal contact with elderly persons.

"It's like going into a library full of amazing, living books," the pert blonde coed says of the students' visits to retirement and rest home. "It brings wisdom for us, and enthusiasm for them."

When the 19-year-old junior came to the University of California's Santa Cruz campus, from Banning, Calif., two years ago, she was haunted by the faces of lonely old people in markets and on the streets.

She asked the college provost, Dr. Page Smith, if she could study the problems of old age. Dr. Smith sponsored her, and she spent weeks reading up on gerontology.

Patty, a literature major, tackled a local retirement hotel first.

"Everyone stared at me," she recalled. "They thought I was just another hippie, I guess."

But she got conversations started by talking about gardening or grandchildren.

"Naturally the reception was mixed. People asked me often: 'Why do you throw bombs?' I always answer: 'I don't throw bombs. We oppose the throwing of firebombs—here and in Vietnam.'"

When the school term ended in June, Patty stayed on in Santa Cruz.

"I really had to stay," she said, adding that she knows

some 500 elderly persons in this area well and probably has spoken to groups including that many more.

This fall she plans to expand the program and increase her study of the elderly.

"Now," she says, "I can't imagine meeting an older person who would bore me."

just becoming friends," Bixby said after the boy left. "I didn't want to try for a father relationship, just friends."

On camera and off, Bixby wears a little golden charm on a chain around his neck. It is a replica of a small hand being held in a larger one — "Eddie's hand inside my hand, because we all wanted to have something relating to this special thing."

NBC has lowered the boom on its daytime "Life with Linkletter" after less than a year's run.

The theory didn't work in execution and at the end of September the program will be replaced by "Words and Music," a game show starring Wink Martindale.

Plan Collection Of Used Glass

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Remember those old glass bottles and containers, the ones you've never bothered to return?

Well, for Toledo area residents, that old glass will be worth a penny per pound.

Owens-Illinois, Inc., announced plans Friday to pay for glass containers as part of a pilot program to reduce solid wastes, recycle glass for use as new containers and pave a parking lot.

Officials of the company expect to collect 325 tons of glass at three points in the Toledo area Aug. 21-22.

Plans are to ship the collected glass to Charlotte, Mich., or Gas City, Ind., where it will be remelted and remade into containers.

Tossing a shoe after newlyweds, or tying to the bumper of a honeymoon convertible, survives in part from the time when the bride's family gave their son-in-law a sandal to signify transfer of chattel — their daughter — according to National Geographic.

College Coed Sparks Drive To Help Elderly Persons

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — Patty Nelson is the prime mover of the "Spring and Autumn Alliance," a program that has put 50 college students into personal contact with elderly persons.

"It's like going into a library full of amazing, living books," the pert blonde coed says of the students' visits to retirement and rest home. "It brings wisdom for us, and enthusiasm for them."

When the 19-year-old junior came to the University of California's Santa Cruz campus, from Banning, Calif., two years ago, she was haunted by the faces of lonely old people in markets and on the streets.

She asked the college provost, Dr. Page Smith, if she could study the problems of old age. Dr. Smith sponsored her, and she spent weeks reading up on gerontology.

Patty, a literature major, tackled a local retirement hotel first.

"Everyone stared at me," she recalled. "They thought I was just another hippie, I guess."

But she got conversations started by talking about gardening or grandchildren.

"Naturally the reception was mixed. People asked me often: 'Why do you throw bombs?' I always answer: 'I don't throw bombs. We oppose the throwing of firebombs—here and in Vietnam.'"

When the school term ended in June, Patty stayed on in Santa Cruz.

"I really had to stay," she said, adding that she knows

some 500 elderly persons in this area well and probably has spoken to groups including that many more.

This fall she plans to expand the program and increase her study of the elderly.

"Now," she says, "I can't imagine meeting an older person who would bore me."

MRS. JAY LINDSEY MORRISON

Miss Miriam Ellen Neiman Weds Jay Lindsey Morrison

Miss Miriam Ellen Neiman daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Neiman, Youngstown, and Mr. Jay Lindsey Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood F. Morrison, Ashville, were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon, August 9, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Youngstown. The bride's uncle, Rev. Floyd T. Shaffer, Ellicott City, Md., assisted during the first part of the ceremony while Rev. Neiman gave his daughter in marriage. The couple spoke their vows to the bride's father, the officiating pastor.

The altar centerpiece was arranged with gladioli, carnations, and gypsophylla. Brass candelabra with white ceremonial tapers flanked the centerpiece.

For her summer wedding, the bride wore a slipper length gown of silk organza and Venice lace trim in an empire modified sheath silhouette. With a scoop neckline the dress had long puff sleeves and a double flowing panel back. A matching chapel length mantilla of silk illusion was accented with Venice lace border held to a Camelot headpiece. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of Jack Frost sweetheart roses, stephanotis, and gypsophylla interwoven with ivy.

Juliet Gowns of pastel yellow with Schiffli embroidery which accented the lino fabric were worn by the attendants. The attendants carried French baskets arranged with yellow daisies, gemini sweetheart roses, and gypsophylla. Miss Mary Jane Neiman was the maid of honor for her sister, Mrs. Douglas Langholz, Newton Centre, Massachusetts, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Beryl Martinson, Logi; Mrs. Charles Finley, Cleveland; and Miss Marilyn McCutcheon, Columbus. The flower girl, Miss Lisa Rossignol, Albany, Ga., was a cousin of the groom.

Mr. Daniel Runkle, Columbus, was the best man, and groomsmen were Mr. Philip Neiman, Youngstown; Mr. James Peters, Ashville; Mr. Robert Remy, Ashville, and Mr. Robert Stanbery, Ashtabula. The ring bearer, Robert Griesheimer, Bellbrook, was the nephew of the groom.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall, where the wedding party was greeted by friends, relatives and members of the congregation. A buffet luncheon for the wedding party and relatives was given at the home of the bride's parents.

After a trip to southern Florida and the eastern coastline, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will live in Columbus. The bride is a teacher at Teays Valley High School in Ashville. The groom, an Air Force Veteran, is a student at Ohio State University and employed part time as a draftsman for the State Highway Department.

Mrs. D. E. Amey To Report On Girl Scouts In Europe

"I've got something for the girls of Savannah, all America and all the world," said Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting, in telling a friend of her idea.

A few troops of Girl Guides already existed in England at that time; now, fifty-eight years later, there are Girl Guides or Girl Scouts in more than 81 countries of the free world.

Four world centers are maintained by the World Assn. of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts: Our Chalet, Adelboden, Switzerland; Olive House (formerly known as "Our Ark"), London, England; Our Cabana, Cuenavaca, Mexico; and Sangam, in Poona, India.

Through the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund, Girl Scouts of the USA has been able to send American Girl Scouts to attend various international events, including two girls from Seal of Ohio Girl Scout Council within the last five years. Several Seal of Ohio troops have taken troop trips to Mexico and visited Our Cabana.

Dean's Host Morrison Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Dean were hosts recently for the Morrison family reunion held at their home near Laurelville.

The afternoon was spent visiting and playing games of horseshoes, badminton, lawn jarts and volleyball.

As the oldest couple present, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Carney were awarded a special gift. Other prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Dean, the hosts, and the four youngest babies.

The 135 family members attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Dean; Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Carney; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Arledge, Mike and Dean; Mrs. Stillman Carney, Bobby, David and Cathy; Mrs. Mildred Arledge; Mrs. Ruth Congrove and daughter; Mr. Everett Bethel and sons, all of Laurelville;

A fun day at the beach can turn to disaster when the sun, wind and salt water wreak havoc to your skin. Dab antiseptic First Aid Cream on cheeks, forehead, chin and nose to keep skin from drying out. The cream helps soothe and heal sunburn, relieves pain quickly.

Mrs. David Amy (Karen) worked with the senior troop in this area for part of the past year. She is now living in Heidelberg, Germany and will visit Girl Guides in Germany, Switzerland and Denmark. She also plans to spend time with the Norwegian family she lived with when she was selected to live in Norway, as a result of applying for a Girl Scout International Opportunity when she was in high school. Maren Engelbrecht, a German counselor from Camp Molly Lauman, was Karen's guest for a few days. Maren taught Karen about German customs, culture, and helped her brush up on the German language.

Karen attends the University of Hamburg, located in her home city during the school year. She is a psychology major and hopes to be a psychotherapist some day. She related that Carl Rogers' books have had a great impact on psychology in Germany. He is her favorite author. Maren said she enjoyed Camp Molly Lauman, the children (including two girls from Circleville, Betsy and Margaret Schenck), and especially the bike unit. She earned the nickname "Spokes" from this.

Mrs. Amy plans to remain in touch with the Senior Girl Scout Troop here, and will share her experiences with us when she returns.

Mr. And Mrs. Peters Feted On 60th Anniversary

Wardell's Party Home was the setting Sunday for a surprise celebration honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters Sr. of Route 2, Ashville, on their 60th

Legion Auxiliaries Note Fund Donations

A red, white and blue bouquet of blooming patriotism and containing $50,000 was presented to American Legion National Commander J. Milton Patrick by the Legion Auxiliary during the two-day sessions of the Legion National Executive Committee in Washington D. C.

Auxiliary National President, Mrs. H. Milton Davidson of Clovis, New Mexico made the presentation on behalf of her organization for the Legion's major programs of veterans rehabilitation and child welfare. Commander Patrick thanked the Auxiliary for their marvelous effort adding, "we couldn't get along without your help."

The patriotic motif included for red, poppies, from which sales the funds were derived, for white, carnations, with this significance also for Memorial Day, and blue, handmade blue Star flowers. The latter included one star for each of the 50 states and for each thousand dollars.

Of the amount $20,000 goes to veterans rehabilitation, $20,000 to child welfare and $10,000 to The American Legion Child Welfare Foundation, Inc.

wedding anniversary. Fifty-nine persons were in attendance to the affair hosted by the celebrants family.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters (Rose Davis), were married Aug. 19, 1910 by Rev. Jamison in the Methodist parsonage, then located on N. Pickaway St. in Circleville.

They are the parents of 11 children, Mrs. W. L. Cozad, Mrs. Forrest Rinehart, Mrs. Loring Valentine, Mrs. Glenn Weiler; Mrs. J. M. Musselman and Mrs. Richard Conrad, all of Circleville.

Mrs. Tom Purcell, Ralph Jr., Mrs. Marvin Richard, Mrs. Don Thompson and Robert M., all of Ashville. There are 32 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Ermine Peters and Mr. Jeff Peters of Cheshire, cousins of Mr. Peters, were also in attendance at the anniversary celebration where the afternoon was spent in visiting, picture taking and reminiscing.

Serve this cold soup on a hot summer day. Blend 3 cups light cream with 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup, a dash of Worcestershire, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper and a goodly sprinkling of nutmeg. Just before serving, peel 2 ripe avocados, cut them into chunks and whirl in a blender. Stir into chilled ingredients and blend well. Serve icy cold, garnished with chopped chives or bits of pimiento. Serves 6 to 8.

The camp program is sponsored by the Ohio Society for Crippled Children and Adults and is supported by the local Easter Seal Society affiliates. Funds are made possible through the annual contributions to the Easter Seal campaign and through special gifts from businesses, individuals, clubs and organizations who have a special interest in the recreation and rehabilitation program of the Society. The second two week camping session is reserved for teens and young adults with physical and neurological handicaps and the final week of the camping program is devoted to handicapped adults of Ohio.

Prison Official Thinks Slain Judge 'Marked For Death'

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — A state prison official says a kidnapped judge "was sentenced to death, no matter what happened" in a courthouse escape attempt which ended in the deaths of the judge, two convicts and an accomplice.

Associate Warden James W. Park of San Quentin Prison told newsmen that his opinion is based "primarily on knowing the extreme anger the convicts had expressed" against Superior Court Judge Harold J. Haley.

Sheriff's officers said an investigation of the shootings was continuing.

Parks reported two prison guards had guns drawn and returned fire as a van attempted to leave Marin County Civic Center Friday. The van carried three convicts attempting to escape, an accomplice and five hostages — Haley, Asst. Dist. Atty. Gary Thomas and three women jurors.

Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales said Thomas, who was critically wounded, told his wife Maureen that he shot three men. He said he used a pistol he grabbed from the driver of the van after Judge Haley was killed.

Park said: "We have the signed report of guard John Matthews that as the van was opposite him, he felt weapons were aimed at him, that one went off and he returned the fire."

The abduction and shooting came after Jonathan Jackson, 17, whipped out a pistol in Haley's Civic Center courtroom and shouted: "Everybody freeze!" Jackson then passed out weapons to James McClain, being tried on a charge of assaulting a San Quentin guard, and to William Arthur Christmas and Russell Magee, convicts waiting to testify.

Officers, backed away by the weapons, reported a saved-off shotgun was taped to the judge's neck. They said a blast from the weapon killed him when the deadly exchange began in the parking lot.

McClain, Christmas and Jackson also were killed and Thomas, juror Maria Graham and Magee were wounded.

Park said San Quentin has a policy of "not letting any prisoner go free because of a hostage."

"This would be the context in which our officers looked at the situation," he added.

"It is explained to all new employees at San Quentin. If they were captured, every effort will be made to rescue them, but no inmate will be allowed to get away."

"Once you allow a hostage situation to work, then you'll be plagued with it, like the airliner hijackings."

Under heavy security, Magee, reported in critical condition, was transferred Sunday from Marin General Hospital to the San Quentin prison hospital.

The Indian Foreign Ministry issued 144,908 passports in 1969, according to official figures. The ministry also turned down about 20,000 applications for passports.

Panel's 1st 'Inflation Alert' Puts Faith In Classic Cures

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has published its first "inflation alert," a low-key document that is partly history and partly a recital of its belief the classic cures for inflation are best.

In the view of its primary author, Chairman Paul W. McCracken of the Council of Economic Advisers, the key point of the 128-page report is the "historical evidence that inflations do respond to therapy but the rapidly of the response depends not only on how sharp the inflation is but also on its longevity."

This, in essence, is what the administration's Republican inflation warriors have been saying all along: The inflation of 1970 is hard to root out because it got so well established when the Democrats were in office, but it is responding.

The inflation alert pointed to several industrial areas where price increases have exerted heavy pressure on wholesale prices, particularly metals and metal products.

Nevertheless, McCracken told a news conference at the White House Friday, the inflation alert is not designed to put pressure on labor or industry.

It named no companies or unions, but said rubber contract settlements in the spring and cigarette price increases this year accounted for large shares of the increase in wholesale prices last month.

At its most specific, the report said wage increases of 15 per cent or more a year in construction can't help but raise the cost of building things, and that the prices of services have risen rapidly although "the opportunities for measurable improvements in productivity are often limited."

Despite the admitted slowness of the economy in responding to anti-inflation measures, McCracken said he is "modestly optimistic" about the fight.

But there was little comfort in another report Friday that wholesale prices, especially food, rose six-tenths of one per cent last month—the sharpest increase since January. Earlier figures put the increase at five-tenths of one per cent.

And the Labor Department reported unemployment rose to 5 per cent in July—returning to the highest rate in five years. It had been 5 per cent in May, then dipped to 4.7 per cent in June.

Scout Ranch Quarantine Is Lifted

CIMARRON, N.M. (AP) — Boy Scouts from a number of Ohio cities will be returning soon from their northern New Mexico retreat following the lifting of a quarantine over the weekend.

The quarantine was imposed on all scouts at the Philmont Scout Ranch Friday after a scout from Jackson, Mich., died while on a hike.

Area health officials at the time feared the death might have been the result of a communicable disease. John Justin, director of the New Mexico Health and Social Service Department, had said that the death of James Morris, 12, indicated certain symptoms of pneumonic plague.

The quarantine was finally lifted late Saturday when Dr. Bruce Storrs, state health director, announced that tests and consultations with federal health authorities eliminated any possibility of death caused by communicable disease.

The decision to lift the travel ban to and from the scout encampment enabled scouts from Dayton, Cincinnati, Akron, Lima, Youngstown and Marion to begin return trips to Ohio.

The Indian Foreign Ministry issued 144,908 passports in 1969, according to official figures. The ministry also turned down about 20,000 applications for passports.

Nationwide Sees Auto Rate Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"To meet the present crisis" in auto insurance, "increased premiums are inevitable," said Dean Jeffers, president of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Co.

Jeffers said over the weekend that his company alone lost $12.1 million underwriting automobile insurance during the first six months of 1970.

It is expected the company will ask the Ohio Department of Insurance to approve auto coverage rate increases early this fall.

Circleville Piranha Swim Club Ends Winning Season

The Circleville Swim Team had an exceptionally busy and productive weekend.

Steve Penn and Jeff Geisler both took part Saturday in the State Class "A" Championship meet at Keating Natatorium in Cincinnati. Penn, swimming the 100 meter backstroke for boys age 11 and 12, finished 10th in the state. Geisler, swimming the 50 meter freestyle for boys age 15 through 17, tied for 8th in the state.

Yesterday, swimming in 9 1/2 solid hours of downpour, in the Mt. Pleasant All League Swim Meet in Lancaster, the Piranha's came home with 201 trophies, medals and ribbons.

Four of the top awards for outstanding swimmers in their age group went to Circleville members. Brenda Brown won the outstanding 10 and under girl award. Steve Penn outstanding 11-12 year old boy, Nancy Guenther, outstanding 13-14 year old girl and Jay L. Arledge as outstanding 13-14 year old boy.

Circleville swimmers won a total of 19 trophies, 125 medals and 57 ribbons. They also won 12 of 18 relay races and 15 of 31 individual events.

Dan Stout, winning the 25 yard backstroke and 25 yard breaststroke for boys 10 and under, paced Circleville in individual wins. Other Circleville firsts in individual events went to Cindy Sparks, Mary Rielly, Dave Resler, Brenda Brown, Steve Penn, Jay L. Arledge, Mike Lawter, Nancy Guenther, Mike Cairns, Mark Beck, Jane Hawks, Mike Sparks and Jeff Geisler.

The Circleville summer season will officially end next Wednesday when an Awards Banquet will be held in Ted Lewis Park.

Jane Blalock Wins Lady Carling Open

ATLANTA (AP) — Fifteen months ago Jane Blalock joined the women's professional golf tour without a sponsor and with only $200 in her purse, but she was determined to succeed.

She chose to give up dating because "there was no carousing around for me. I knew I had to concentrate on golf so I could stay on the tour."

The 24-year-old blonde from Portsmouth, N. H., changed her no dating policy Sunday. She charged from six strokes, five shots behind, to win the $3,000 first prize in the $20,000 Lady Carling Open Golf Tournament.

"I think I'll play around now," she said, smiling. "Bring on the boys."

Martha Catherine Wins At Scioto

Martha Catherine, owned and driven by Emmett Ebenbach of Wayne Township, won the fourth race at Scioto Downs Saturday.

The bay mare covered the mile in 2:06 and paid $5.40, $2.80 and $2.40.

Bengals Top Washington 27-12 In NFL

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's emphasis on drafting defensive players for the 1970 season may pay quick dividends, judging from the way rookies performed in the Bengals' opening 27-12 National Football League victory.

"The pass defense was excellent. It pulled us through," Coach Paul Brown said of his Bengals' decision over the Washington Redskins Saturday night before 52,299 in Riverfront Stadium.

Lamar Parrish and Sandy Durko, a couple of defensive newcomers, stashed the triumph away in the second half for the Bengals, who nursed a 10-9 halftime margin.

Parrish, a cornerback from Lincoln University, returned a fumble 55 yards for a third quarter touchdown. Durko, a safety from Southern California, slipped 67 yards with a pass interception for a score in the final period.

"Parrish is just like a shot out of a gun," Brown said. "Do you know he runs 40 yards in 4.4 seconds? Durko looked right at home, too."

Sonny Jurgensen, the leading passer in the NFL last season, could throw for only one touchdown, an 18-yarder to Charley Taylor in the second quarter.

"We scored for them," said Redskins acting head Coach Bill Austin. "The offense gave up three scores."

Brown thought Sam Wyche did a commendable job filling in for injured Bengal quarterback Greg Cook. Wyche hit 11 of 18 passes for 82 yards.

The Bengal boss is doubtful Cook will play against the Dolphins in Miami Saturday night in another exhibition test.

"Until he's ready to go full steam he won't play. I don't know when that will be," Brown said. "He must have that old time authority and throw the ball with some zip."

The crowd was the largest ever to see a sports event in Cincinnati.

Golden-haired Terry Bradshaw, pro football's No. 1 rookie, has had his baptism of fire in the play-for-pay ranks. Individually, he was a winner, although his team, the Pittsburgh Steelers, lost.

"What an arm," said Coach Don Shula, whose Miami Dolphins beat the Steelers 16-10.

It was one of the 10 exhibition games—first this season—in the National Football League. Collectively, the games Saturday attracted 450,674, more than twice the crowds for 11 major league baseball games the same day.

All 26 teams have games for the upcoming weekend of exhibitions, which runs from Friday night to Monday night. A feature will be a nationally televised, by NBC, game at Kansas City Friday night between the Chiefs and the Baltimore Colts.

The Steelers earned the right to pick Bradshaw, last season's Little All-American quarterback from Louisiana Tech, as the No. 1 rookie after posting a 1-13 record in Chuck Noll's first year as head coach.

Bradshaw—they called him the Blond Bomber in his college days—directed the Steelers on their only touchdown drive, something which veterans Kent Nix and Terry Hanratty couldn't accomplish. Bradshaw threw 19 passes, completing nine for 92 yards.

"Considering it was his first professional game, Terry did a remarkable job," Noll said. "We have great hopes for Terry and we do think things are getting better with the Pittsburgh Steelers."

Another rookie quarterback who showed well was Bill Cappelman of Florida State, who went the distance for the Minnesota Vikings. Like Bradshaw, Cappelman didn't direct his team to victory. The Vikings bowed 14-13 to the New Orleans Saints in the Pro Football Hall of Fame game at Canton, Ohio.

The Vikings, with quarterback Joe Kapp holding out for more money, were played over Cappelman's performance. "The kid did all right for his first game," said Coach Bud Grant. "We hadn't planned to play him all the way, but the further he went, the better he looked."

Cappelman connected on 19 of 30 tosses for 189 yards. "He hurt us," said Coach Tom Fears of the Saints, one of three Hall of Fame inductees. "We covered his passes quite well, but he froze the ball and that's what kept us in trouble."

Tom Dempsey's extra point kick after rookie safety Doug Wyatt had scored on a 50-yard fumble recovery return with four seconds left earned the Saints their victory.

The New York Jets, with quarterback Joe Namath also in the holdout ranks, got touchdown passes from Babe Parilli

Harbour, Crace Win At Atomic

George Harbour of Huntington, W. Va., driving a Cincinnati-based super-modified, and Bob Crace of Chillicothe became the only drivers with three feature victories for the season at Atomic Speedway Saturday night.

Starting almost at the back of the 20-car field, Harbour threaded his way into third by the half-way mark of the modified main event and took over from Sam Erwin of Portsmouth on the 20th lap.

Trying for the first back-to-back win of the year, Erwin moved from his ninth starting position to take the lead from Lee Dusty of Columbus on the restart of the 12th lap. Dusty regained the lead briefly, only to spin out on the fourth turn with Erwin barely able to miss him. Erwin finished second and for his top performance of the season Spike Spears of Chillicothe was third.

Starting in 15th position, Crace took the lead from Paul Cohan of Jackson at the midway point of the 20-lap superstock feature. Ike Schaffer of Circleville led for the first four laps and later went off the track with steering problems and Cohan finished sixth after setting the pace for the next five laps. Don Stump of Circleville finished second and Jim Steele of Jackson was third.

BOTH Harbour and Crace have one second-place and one third-place finishes on their records in features for the season at Atomic. Erwin is the only other modified driver with more than one feature win and George Branscom, Don Stump and Bob Stanhope have pairs of superstock features.

Steve Unger of Garrettsville was the only one with two wins on the 10-event program by capturing the dash for the four fastest cars and also winning the fast heat. Joe Frazier of Chillicothe and Don Adams of Logan won the other modified heats, Junior Smalley of Waverly the consi and Bob Morgan of Chillicothe had fast time for the fourth time for the year at 16:41.

Jim West and Bob Stanhope of Chillicothe were the stock heat winners and George Branscom of Chillicothe captured the consi.

McDowell Blames Umpiring In Tribe's Opening Loss

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cleveland Indians split a doubleheader with the Washington Senators Sunday, 7-3, 6-3, and Sam McDowell, looking for his 17th victory of the season, blamed his loss on the umpiring.

McDowell (16-7) charged that in the first game plate umpire Bob "Stewart blew it. Just as he blew a lot of others. I couldn't count all the pitches he missed."

Even a triple play by the Indians didn't help McDowell's cause.

McDowell's catcher Ray Fosse was in complete agreement on the umpiring, claiming that Stewart is too "old to be umpiring. . . He can't see anymore. He's become a real homer."

Stewart, 55, sent four straight batters to first base on balls in the sixth to break a 2-2 tie.

"I didn't complain to him because I made a promise to myself two months ago I'd never argue with an umpire again," said McDowell, who was reprimanded for some heated words with Umpire Larry Napp on June 15 in a 3-2 victory over California.

"I tried to keep my cool," he said, "but I guess I didn't do such a good job of it."

"I can't tell about pitches from the dugout," said Indians Manager Alvin Dark. "All I can go by is what my catcher tells me, and Ray told me Stewart missed plenty."

The Indians' 6-3 second game victory came on Tony Horton's two-run homer and Vada Pinson's two-run double.

Pinson doubled in the second after Ted Uhlander doubled and Jack Heidemann walked. Horton's 17th homer in the fifth.

Pitching (10 decisions) — Simpson, Cincinnati 14-3, .824, 3.06; Giusti, Pittsburgh 8-2, .800, 2.99; Carroll, Cincinnati 8-2, .800, 3.20.

Strikeouts — S. e a v e r, New York 216; Gibson, St. Louis 197.

Shoemaker Marks His 6,000th Win

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — When Bill Shoemaker crossed the wire with his 5,999th winner, many of the 17,500 fans booed, as they frequently do when the little jockey wins or loses.

Several races later the 38-year-old Shoemaker became the second jockey in history to ride 6,000 winning horses. No boos were audible amidst the cheers and applause Saturday as hundreds jammed the rail, holding out winning and losing tickets and programs for autographs.

Sizemore Leads L.A. In Wins Over Reds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ted Sizemore roared through a super Sunday, rolling up seven hits and six RBIs and, not surprisingly, he called it his best day in the majors.

"You bet it's the best day I've had," said the Los Angeles Dodger second baseman after he led the Dodgers to a sweep of Cincinnati, 7-3 and 13-3, Sunday before 48,277 fans at Dodger Stadium.

"I know why I'm hitting so much better, too," the 1969 National League rookie of the year continued. "The leg is now 100 per cent. I can bat like I should and really, I just feel better all around."

It was a pulled muscle in Sizemore's left leg suffered in spring training that has had the 24-year-old infielder in and out of the lineup all season.

The sweep enabled the Dodgers to split four games here with Cincinnati and climb to within 12 games of the Reds.

Both clubs are idle Monday. Los Angeles opens a nine-game road trip Tuesday at Pittsburgh while the Reds return home to Riverfront Stadium against New York.

The Reds leave town battered, not only from the 35-hit shelling Sunday by the Dodgers, but because of the status of their pitching staff which was further depleted.

Jim McGlothlin was hit by a line drive off the bat of Bill Grabarkewitz in the third inning of the second game, opening a nasty cut next to his right eye. The wound requires 15 stitches to close and McGlothlin spent Sunday night in Daniel Freeman Hospital in Inglewood. Dr. Frank Jobe, the Dodgers' physician, said there was no apparent eye or bone damage.

The injury to McGlothlin was the second suffered by the Reds in the series. Ace relief pitcher Clay Carroll is on crutches after he was spiked by Maury Wills Friday night and will be sidelined another 10 days. Rookie Wayne Simpson is still having problems with his shoulder and veteran Jim Maloney remains on the disabled list which leaves the Reds only seven able-bodied pitchers at the moment.

"We want to beat 'em at their best, of course," Sizemore said, noting the numerous injuries, "but with the problems with their pitching, the next couple of weeks are very important to us. We've got a chance to pick up some games, and don't we have five more games with the Reds."

Bengals Top Washington 27-12 In NFL

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's emphasis on drafting defensive players for the 1970 season may pay quick dividends, judging from the way rookies performed in the Bengals' opening 27-12 National Football League victory.

"The pass defense was excellent. It pulled us through," Coach Paul Brown said of his Bengals' decision over the Washington Redskins Saturday night before 52,299 in Riverfront Stadium.

Lamar Parrish and Sandy Durko, a couple of defensive newcomers, stashed the triumph away in the second half for the Bengals, who nursed a 10-9 halftime margin.

Parrish, a cornerback from Lincoln University, returned a fumble 55 yards for a third quarter touchdown, Durko, a safety from Southern California, slipped 67 yards with a pass interception for a score in the final period.

"Parrish is just like a shot out of a gun," Brown said. "Do you know he runs 40 yards in 4.4 seconds? Durko looked right at home, too."

Sonny Jurgensen, the leading passer in the NFL last season, could throw for only one touch-down, an 18-yarder to Charley Taylor in the second quarter.

"We scored for them," said Redskins acting head coach Bill Austin. "The offense gave up three scores."

Brown thought Sam Wyche did a commendable job filling in for injured Bengal quarterback Greg Cook. Wyche hit 11 of 18 passes for 82 yards.

The Bengal boss is doubtful Cook will play against the Dolphins in Miami Saturday night in another exhibition test.

"Until he's ready to go full steam he won't play. I don't know when that will be," Brown said. "He must have that old time authority and throw the ball with some zip."

The crowd was the largest ever to see a sports event in Cincinnati.

The Green Bay Packers, with Bart Starr throwing 71 yards to Carroll Dale for a touchdown, and the New York Giants, with rookie Ed Baker hitting Dick Houston, who also caught a TD pass from Fran Tarkenton, for a 55-yard scorer, deadlocked 31-31 in the tie game.

Earl Morrall came off the bench in the late going to throw one touchdown pass and set up another as the Baltimore Colts rallied to beat the Oakland Raiders, 33-21. Rookies Lamar Parrish, scoring with a 55-yard fumble recovery, and Sandy Durko, who dashed 67 yards for a touchdown with an interception, aided the Cincinnati Bengals in their 27-12 conquest of the Washington Redskins.

Roman Gabriel ran for one touchdown and threw for a second as the Los Angeles Rams defeated the Cleveland Browns 30-17 while the Chicago Bears, with Mac Percival kicking three field goals, whipped the Houston Oilers, 23-13.

Bankers Blast Chefs In Pony League Clash

Savings Bank hitters rapped Burger Chef pitching for 12 hits to scuttle the Burgers, 15-8, in a Pony League clash.

The bankers jumped on top with three runs in the first but the chefs bounced back with one in the second and two in the third to knot the count.

Both teams tallied four times in the fourth to keep the contest even but the chefs added a marker in the fourth to break into the lead.

Six runs in the sixth frame put the Savings Bank out in front to stay and they added two insurance counters in the seventh to put the game on ice.

JAMES Brown struckout nine to gain the win while Rick Woltz fanned eight in the losing cause.

Brown aided his own cause with two doubles and a pair of singles. David Tarvin added three singles, Rick Ramsey a double and single, and Mark Sherer, Chris Isaac and Terry Brown each contributed a one bagger for the bankers.

Rick Sampsell blasted a homer and a single to pace the chefs. Johnson added two singles and Woltz, Randy Thomas and Robert Rose had a safety in the attack.

The loss knocked the Burger Chef out of sole possession of first place and into a co-championship with the VFW squad.

McDowell Blames Umpiring In Tribe's Opening Loss

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cleveland Indians split a doubleheader with the Washington Senators Sunday, 7-3, 6-3, and Sam McDowell, looking for his 17th victory of the season, blamed his loss on the umpiring.

McDowell (16-7) charged that in the first game plate umpire Bob "Stewart blew it. Just as he blew a lot of others. I couldn't count all the pitches he missed."

Even a triple play by the Indians didn't help McDowell's cause.

McDowell's catcher Ray Fosse was in complete agreement on the umpiring, claiming that Stewart is too "old to be umpiring. . . He can't see anymore. He's become a real homer."

Stewart, 55, sent four straight batters to first base on balls in the sixth to break a 2-2 tie. "I didn't complain to him because I made a promise to myself two months ago I'd never argue with an umpire again," said McDowell, who was reprimanded for some heated words with Umpire Larry Napp on June 15 in a 3-2 victory over California.

"I tried to keep my cool," he said, "but I guess I didn't do such a good job of it."

"I can't tell about pitches from the dugout," said Indians Manager Alvin Dark. "All I can go by is what my catcher tells me, and Ray told me Stewart missed plenty."

The Indians' 6-3 second game victory came on Tony Horton's two-run homer and Vada Pinson's two-run double.

Pinson doubled in the second after Ted Uhlander doubled and Jack Heidemann walked. Horton's 17th homer in the fifth.

Pitching (10 decisions) — Simpson, Cincinnati 14-3, .824, 3.06; Giusti, Pittsburgh 8-2, .800, 2.99; Carroll, Cincinnati 8-2, .800, 3.20.

Strikeouts — Seaver, New York 216; Gibson, St. Louis 197.

Shoemaker Marks His 6,000th Win

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP) — When Bill Shoemaker crossed the wire with his 5,999th winner, many of the 17,500 fans booed, as they frequently do when the little jockey wins or loses.

Several races later the 38-year-old Shoemaker became the second jockey in history to ride 6,000 winning horses. No boos were audible amidst the cheers and applause Saturday as hundreds jammed the rail, holding out winning and losing tickets and programs for autographs.

Circleville Piranha Swim Club Ends Winning Season

The Circleville Swim Team had an exceptionally busy and productive weekend.

Steve Penn and Jeff Geisler both took part Saturday in the State Class "A" Championship meet at Keating Natatorium in Cincinnati. Penn, swimming the 100 meter backstroke for boys age 11 and 12, finished 10th in the state. Geisler, swimming the 50 meter freestyle for boys age 15 through 17, tied for 8th in the state.

Yesterday, swimming in 9 1/2 solid hours of downpour, in the Mt. Pleasant All League Swim Meet in Lancaster, the Piranha's came home with 201 trophies, medals and ribbons.

Four of the top awards for outstanding swimmers in their age group went to Circleville members. Brenda Brown won the outstanding 10 and under girl award. Steve Penn, outstanding 11-12 year old boy, Nancy Guenther, outstanding 13-14 year old girl and Jay L. Arledge as outstanding 13-14 year old boy.

Circleville swimmers won a total of 19 trophies, 125 medals and 57 ribbons. They also won 12 of 18 relay races and 15 of 31 individual events.

Dan Stout, winning the 25 yard backstroke and 25 yard breaststroke for boys 10 and under, paced Circleville in individual wins. Other Circleville firsts in individual events went to Cindy Sparks, Mary Rielly, Dave Resler, Brenda Brown, Steve Penn, Jay L. Arledge, Mike Lawter, Nancy Guenther, Mike Cairns, Mark Beck, Jane Hawks, Mike Sparks and Jeff Geisler.

The Circleville summer season will officially end next Wednesday when an Awards Banquet will be held in Ted Lewis Park.

Softball Tourney At Chillicothe

The District 8 Fast Pitch Softball Tournament is being held at Meade Park in Chillicothe.

It is a double elimination tourney with Penton Nursing Home of Chillicothe and Penn Trucking of Greenfield remaining in the winner's bracket and Chillicothe Eagles, Em's Market and Williams' Restaurant still in the losers bracket.

There will be three games tonight beginning at 6 p.m. with all teams seeing action.

LWBA Sets Meeting

The Fall Meeting of the Lancaster Women's Bowling Association will be 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Moose Home, 123 E. Main St., Lancaster Ohio.

Immediately following this meeting there will be a workshop. Everyone is invited to attend. Secretaries can pick up their winter supplies after the meeting.

Jane Blalock Wins Lady Carling Open

ATLANTA (AP) — Fifteen months ago Jane Blalock joined the women's professional golf tour without a sponsor and with only $200 in her purse, but she was determined to succeed.

She chose to give up dating because "there was no carousing around for me. I knew I had to concentrate on golf so I could stay on the tour."

The 24-year-old blonde from Portsmouth, N. H., changed her no dating policy Sunday. She charged from six strokes, five shots behind, to win the $3,000 first prize in the $20,000 Lady Carling Open Golf Tournament.

"I think I'll play around now," she said, smiling. "Bring on the boys."

Martha Catherine Wins At Scioto

Martha Catherine, owned and driven by Emmett Ebenhack of Wayne Township, won the fourth race at Scioto Downs Saturday.

The bay mare covered the mile in 2:06 and paid $5.40, $2.89 and $2.40.

Angels, A's Win Doubleheaders

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Alex Johnson and Don Mincher came marching home, the California Angels and Oakland A's each did an abrupt about-face ... and headed back into the American League's West Division title chase on the double.

Johnson, back from a two-week military reserve hitch, smacked a home run and three singles Sunday as the Angels took a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 5-0 and 6-3.

Mincher, a former Minnesota slugger, socked two homers, a double and two singles against his old teammates, delivering six runs in Oakland's 3-0, 6-3 twin killing.

Elsewhere in the AL, Baltimore and New York divided 11-inning struggles, the Yanks taking the opener 6-4 and the Orioles winning the nightcap 12-9; Washington split with Cleveland, bowing 6-3 after a 7-3 victory; Boston downed Detroit 7-4 and Milwaukee beat Kansas City 4-2.

Johnson teamed with fellow reservists Tom Egan and Clyde Wright to engineer the Angels' double victory at Chicago. His run-scoring single and eighth homer of the season gave Wright, pitching on a weekend pass, an early 2-0 lead in the opener and the slender southpaw went on to nail his 15th victory with relief help from Mel Queen.

Johnson stroked two more singles, boosting his average to .323, and scored twice in the nightcap. He trails league-leader Carl Yastrzemski of Boston by three points in the AL batting race.

Egan, who completed his two-week Air Force stint with Johnson, caught both games and poled an eighth-inning homer in the opener.

Chuck Dobson, who had a 6-11 lifetime mark against the Twins, handed them their first shutout setback in 126 regular season games to trigger Oakland's sweep before a season-high Minnesota crowd of 41,339. He fired a four-hitter for his seventh consecutive victory since the All-Star break.

Mincher, discarded by the Twins four years ago, drove in two runs in the first game, then delivered four in the nightcap with his 19th and 20th homers.

Roy White powered the Yankees past Baltimore in the first game, tying it with a two-out, two-run single in the ninth and poling a two-run homer in the 11th.

Frank Robinson, out of the Orioles' starting line-up with a shoulder injury, pinch-hit a double in the 11th inning of the nightcap to trigger the deciding three-run volley after the Yanks had fought back from an early 6-0 deficit.

The Senators scored five runs on one hit—Rick Reichardt's two-run single—five walks and an error in the sixth inning of the opener to beat Sam McDowell despite a Cleveland triple play.

The Indians bounced back to earn the split as Tony Horton drilled a two-run homer and Vada Pinson doubled home two more runs.

Yastrzemski beat out an infield single with two out in the first inning and the Red Sox strafed Mickey Lolich for six more hits in succession for a commanding 5-0 jump. Ray Culp blanked the Tigers until the eighth and received ninth-inning relief help from Gary Wagner.

Gus Gil stole home for the deciding run in the seventh, and Dave May drove in two runs with a single and double as the Brewers came from behind to whip Kansas City. Ed Kirkpatrick hit a pair of homers for the Royals.

The 516-carat Great Star of Africa, a diamond cut from the Cullinan, the largest ever unearthed, was mounted in the scepter of Britain's King Edward VII, while a 309-carat fragment adorned his crown. Two smaller pieces, 92 and 62 carats, were placed in the crown of his late Queen Mary.

United States Wins Curtis Cup Again

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — The United States had the Curtis Cup back in its usual showcase today after continuing domination of the British Isles in the biennial trans-Atlantic competition begun in 1932.

The Americans won the trophy for the sixth straight time and the 12th since its inception by overwhelming their amateur counterparts from overseas 11½-5½ Saturday at Brae Burn Country Club.

Pennant fever is spreading.

It was running rampant in the Bucs' clubhouse—although no one would admit it—after they took advantage of New York's pitching problems Sunday to turn back the Mets 8-3 and regain a 3½-game lead in the National League East.

The teams wrap up the four-game series tonight with the Mets sending their ace, 16-game winner Tom Seaver, against Dock Ellis, 12-8.

In Sunday's other games, San Diego turned back Atlanta 4-2 in the only other single contest. In doubleheader action, Philadelphia beat Chicago 6-1 after the Cubs won the opener 4-1; Montreal nipped St. Louis 7-6, then lost to the Cardinals 4-0; San Francisco ripped Houston 6-1 after the Astros grabbed the first game 7-5 in 10 innings, and Los Angeles shellacked Cincinnati 7-3 and 13-3.

The Pirates, shooting for their first pennant in a decade, wouldn't permit themselves the luxury of thinking too far ahead in the season—they've got 43 games to play—but they're not above speculating about the opposition.

"It's too early to say what's going to happen," Clemente insisted, "but we have to do it right now. We have to get into a good position for that last month." The Mets and Pirates play seven of their final 10 games this year against each other.

Nolan Ryan was nursing a 3-2 lead when the Bucs opened the seventh inning with a walk and put runners on second and third as Ryan threw Matty Alou's sacrifice bunt past first base.

In came Ray Sadecki who proceeded to give up three more walks—one of them intentional—plus a pair of run-scoring singles and a sacrifice fly and the Pirates led 6-3. They added two more in the eighth on Clemente's triple, a sacrifice fly and Stargell's 23rd homer.

San Diego's Nate Colbert and Ed Spiezio cracked solo homers off Pat Jarvis as the Padres beat the Atlanta right-hander for the first time in six decisions. Henry Aaron of the Braves hit his 33rd homer.

Barry Lersch of the Phils made a successful debut as a starter, scattering eight hits while Tony Taylor crashed a two-run homer in the nightcap. The Cubs won the opener as pitcher Milt Pappas drilled a triple to trigger a two-run eighth-inning rally.

St. Louis rookie left-hander Jerry Reuss twirled a two-hitter to silence Montreal's bats in the second game of their twinbill. Bobby Wine's two-run tie-breaking double highlighted a four-run seventh inning that paved the way to the Expos' first-game triumph.

San Francisco scrambled back from a four-run deficit and tied the opener in the ninth but Houston's Joe Morgan unloaded a two-run homer in the next frame. Frank Johnson's two-run double in the sixth gave the Giants all the runs they needed in the nightcap.

Los Angeles unleashed a 35-hit attack—20 of them in the second game—to cut the runaway Reds' lead in the Western Division to 12 games. Ted Sizemore led the Dodger attack with seven hits for six runs batted in.

1. Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the many, many cards, flowers, gifts, and prayers in my behalf during my stay in Berger Hospital. The inspirational visits of the Rev. H. Eugene Flowers,
Rev. Mann, Rev. Foster Jenne and

Beard Wins American Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Frank Beard took a look ahead to this week's PGA National Championship after picking off the $30,000 first prize in the American Golf Classic.

"No", the soft spoken technician said, "I've never won two consecutive tournaments. I've come close, but I've never won two in a row." Then he paused, smile, and added, "until now."

"Actually, I'll go to the PGA just like this week never happened. I won't be overly elated and I won't be going in there feeling like I've used it all up."

Beard, who almost didn't come to Akron for the $150,000 classic, fired a conservative 71, one-over-par, on the demanding 7,180-yard Firestone layout in the final round Sunday.

He had a 276, two less than Jack Nicklaus, Bruce Crampton and Tommy Aaron, each tied at 278.

Of the players who had a chance to challenge Beard, only Nicklaus could break par. He had a 69. Crampton, winner the week before, took a 71 and Aaron, who had a share of the top spot until he double bogeyed the 13th, finished with 72.

George Archer, leader through the first two rounds, had a 73 and was alone at 279.

Tom Shaw, tied with Beard for the No. 1 position going into the final round, double bogeyed two of his first three holes en route to a 75 for 280. Defending champion Ray Floyd had a 75.

Coach Joe Belmont of the Denver Rockets in the American Basketball Association says that while his team was winning 30 games in a 40-game stretch last season, he lost 23 pounds.

Sealed bids for furnishing, delivering and installing furniture will be received by the Board of Education of Logan Elm School District, Pickaway County, Ohio, at the office of the Board of Education located at Route four, Circleville, Ohio 43113, until 12:00 noon, Eastern Standard Time, September 3, 1970, and will be opened and read aloud at that time at the above address.

Proposals must be enclosed in sealed envelopes, endorsed by the name of the bidder and marked "Proposal for Furnishing, Delivering and Installing Bleachers for George D. McDowell Exchange School."

The information for Bidders, Plans, Specifications, Bid and Contract Bonds Bid Forms and the Contract may be examined at the Office of the Board of Education, Logan Elm High School, Route four, Circleville, Ohio 43113, on or before the time named in this advertisement.

Each bidder must deposit a certified check on a good and solvent bank or an approved Bid Bond in an amount of at least five percent (5 per cent) of the base bid in the form and subject to the conditions provided in the "Information for Bidders."

All bids must be submitted on the forms provided with the Specifications. No bidder may withdraw his bid within (30) days after the actual date of the opening thereof.

The right is reserved by the Board of Education to reject any or all bids and to waive irregularities.

Browns OK Despite Loss Collier Says

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns coach Blanton Collier sent his charges back to the Hiram College training camp today, optimistic about progress despite the Browns' 30-17 shelling Saturday by the Rams in Los Angeles.

"We made progress, particularly on defense," Collier said. "I thought our defense was more aggressive."

"We played a pretty good first half, but still stuck to our substitution plan. In that third quarter, we had a lot of new men in against their regulars."

In Los Angeles, Rams coach George Allen was pleased on at least two counts—that his regulars were in good physical shape, thanks to working out on their own during the recent NFL players' strike, and the performance of his special teams.

Alvin Haymond starred for the specialists, exciting 71,559 fans in Memorial Coliseum with his sensational kick returns.

Haymond, taking up where he left off last year, returned one kickoff 49 yards and two punts for a total of 70.

Cleveland and Los Angeles each scored in the first quarter. The Browns under reserve quarterback Don Gault, went ahead 14-7 early in the second, but the Rams countered with a safety and a touchdown in the space of the final two minutes of the half to take a 16-14 lead.

Los Angeles iced the game with two touchdowns in the third, Gabriel sneaking over from the one and tossing a 37-yard bomb to big Bob Klein for the other.

Most of the Browns seemed optimistic about their play.

Beard Wins American Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Frank Beard took a look ahead to this week's PGA National Championship after picking off the $30,000 first prize in the American Golf Classic.

"No", the soft spoken technician said, "I've never won two consecutive tournaments. I've come close, but I've never won two in a row." Then he paused, smile, and added, "until now."

"Actually, I'll go to the PGA just like this week never happened. I won't be overly elated and I won't be going in there feeling like I've used it all up."

Beard, who almost didn't come to Akron for the $150,000 classic, fired a conservative 71, one-over-par, on the demanding 7,180-yard Firestone layout in the final round Sunday.

He had a 276, two less than Jack Nicklaus, Bruce Crampton and Tommy Aaron, each tied at 278.

Of the players who had a chance to challenge Beard, only Nicklaus could break par. He had a 69. Crampton, winner the week before, took a 71 and Aaron, who had a share of the top spot until he double bogeyed the 13th, finished with 72.

George Archer, leader through the first two rounds, had a 73 and was alone at 279.

Tom Shaw, tied with Beard for the No. 1 position going into the final round, double bogeyed two of his first three holes en route to a 75 for 280. Defending champion Ray Floyd had a 75.

Coach Joe Belmont of the Denver Rockets in the American Basketball Association says that while his team was winning 30 games in a 40-game stretch last season, he lost 23 pounds.

Lions Club Presents Cane

INSTRUCTIONS — Mrs. Charles M. Rowland (center) is being instructed in the use of a white cane for walking by Mrs. James Bebee, rehabilitation teacher of the Bureau of Services for the Blind. Looking on is Fred Howell, local Lions Club president, which furnishes the canes.

Aid to the blind is the main project of the Lions Club. Thursday morning, Mrs. Charles M. Rowland of 170 Town St., who recently lost most of her sight, was presented a white cane by local club president, Fred Howell.

On hand for instructions of its use was Mrs. James F. Bebee, rehabilitation teacher from the Bureau of Services for the Blind, Columbus District.

The Lions Club gives the canes to all persons in need of them, sponsor eye examinations for children, purchase their glasses when needed and provide seeing-eye dogs. They raise money for this purpose through their annual sale of light bulbs.

A talking-book machine has been sent to Mrs. Rowland from the Library of Congress. She obtains the records of all popular magazines and books from the Cincinnati regional library.

THE records are mailed in

PPG Safety Engineer Attends Fire School

James E. Fraunfelder, plant safety engineer, PPG Industries, Circleville, recently attended a three-day session of the Fire School at The Ansul Company, Marinette, Wis.

He was one of a group of about 25 men who came to the school from all over the United States and Canada. Fire School trainees are taught the latest in advanced fire fighting techniques. Most of their time at the school is spent in fighting actual fires, ranging from small gasoline spill fires to 800 square foot pit fires and gasoline and propane pressure fires.

boxes with easy to open straps and a card that simply has to be turned over to return the box to the library. They also will send an automatic knitting machine to Mrs. Rowland.

A Brail watch is being purchased from the American Foundation for the Blind.

Mrs. Bebee visits Mrs. Rowland once every two weeks. She will teach her many things to do which will occupy her time.

Glick Holstein Classified For Body Type

David W. Glick, Ashville, Ohio, has been notified by Holstein-Friesian Association of America that a Registered Holstein cow in his herd has received an "E" designation for body type conformation.

On the basis of her again being classified "Excellent," Donna Carldot Fond 6739590 has been awarded 2E designation.

This phase of the Holstein Association's herd improvement service provides special recognition for "Excellent" cows that continue to score "Excellent" as they grow older. A cow may be designated 2, 3 or 4E according to her history of previous "Excellent" classifications within specified age brackets.

Among the 87,200 registered Holsteins scored for body type last year, less than two per cent attained "Excellent" status. Thus, the achievement of multiple "E" designation makes the individual cow a more valuable asset for her improvement purposes in the dairyman's breeding program.

Cloud Sets Grand Jury Testimony

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Auditor Roger Cloud, who disclosed irregularities in state investment practices, was to testify today before a special grand jury investigating the money scandal.

Cloud was expected to discuss state audits of loans made by the School Employees Retirement System and the state treasurer's office.

The audits questioned $28.7 million worth of construction loans from SERS funds and revealed that the treasurer's office had exceeded by $12 million the $50 million limit in commercial investments.

Crofters, Inc., a money-finding firm, arranged the SERS loans and $22 million through the state treasury.

Also scheduled to testify today was Robert Gardner, former investment officer for Treasurer John D. Herbert.

Assistant Prosecutor John Peck said Herbert and state Sen. Robin Turner have been called to appear before the grand jury Tuesday or Wednesday, depending upon the length of testimony by Cloud and Gardner.

Although Cloud, Herbert and Turner were among Republican candidates receiving campaign contributions last spring from officers of Crofters, Peck has said he was calling them because of their official connections with SERS and the treasurer's office.

Cloud, Herbert and Turner are the GOP nominees for governor, attorney general and treasurer, respectively.

Kane May Call Own Grand Jury In KSU Probe

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Portage County Prosecutor Ronald J. Kane says he might initiate his own grand jury investigation into the shooting deaths of four Kent State University students if he does not believe the state grand jury does an adequate job.

Kane, who appeared on a television question-answer program here Sunday, said: "I would think I would be required to call a Portage County grand jury if the state doesn't do an adequate job."

Asked if an impartial panel could be selected, he replied: "I think we could empanel 15 impartial people from the county. They're good, God-fearing people and they'd be fair."

Kane repeated that he was concerned whether the state grand jury would prosecute anyone on the basis of its findings. "So far, all the governor has ordered (State Atty. Gen. Paul W.) Brown to do is investigate," Kane said.

Trash Barrel Ignites Tree In East End

A fire was reported Saturday at 500 Renick Ave., the property of Harry Turner.

Shortly after 1:30 p.m. firemen were notified by Carolyn Goodman that a tree on the Turner property was burning. The fire, believed to have started from a nearby trash barrel, was extinguished without incident.

U.S. Taxpayer Financing Luxury Cruise Ships

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is paying as much as $400 per passenger in federal aid to finance luxury cruises aboard ocean liners to such exotic ports as Hong Kong, Tahiti, Jamaica and Bora Bora.

Even a bubbly New Year's Eve party aboard a ship cruising off the California coast is covered by the rich flow of federal aid.

The payments are part of a special subsidy to American passenger ships that has cost taxpayers an estimated $240 million over the past five years.

The aid was begun for national defense reasons before World War II. But now, Government records show the only passenger liners benefitting from the payments are 10 cruise ships sailing the South Pacific and the Caribbean.

Congress, fed with plush campaign contributions from both seamen's unions and the shipping industry, moved this year to expand the aid to more cruises.

The subsidies go mainly to pay the difference in the higher wages for American seamen as compared to the low-paid crews on foreign ships.

The aid can run as high as half the total cost of a cruise ship's voyage.

Cruise ships don't even need to go to a foreign port to get the government support. The S.S. President Wilson plans a three-day New Year's Eve "party cruise" off San Francisco this year, and a company official says it will qualify for aid. The ship sailed to Mexico last New Year's Eve.

Shipping officials say that without this federal aid to pay their higher wage costs, they would be priced out of business and the privately owned American fleet would be certain to vanish from the seas.

The aid law makes keeping American ships sailing on overseas shipping routes a goal along with the national defense reasons.

The defense purpose of the payments seems outdated, government officials agree, in an era when a single jumbo jet can carry twice as many troops across the Atlantic in the same week it would take all cruise ships out of New York to cross the ocean.

"I don't know if it's necessary for national defense," concedes a Maritime Administration official. "But it keeps our flag at sea."

The government aid goes to both cargo vessels and the passenger ships. Because they have much larger crews, the passenger liners require much more aid per ship.

About $160 million a year is spent in federal aid for around 250 cargo ships sailing for American firms. Although far outnumbered by cargo ships, passenger liners' aid has amounted to nearly one-third the cargo cost.

The six passenger vessels sailing to the Caribbean and South America for Prudential-Grace Lines out of New York got $11 million in aid last year. About $7 million went to the President Cleveland and the President Wilson on the Pacific $6 million was paid to another set of sister ships, the Monterey and Mariposa, which also sail the South Seas.

The aid for these 10 cruise ships may be up this year, but the total spent for passenger liners should be down from the $50 million annual rate to perhaps $30 million because the number of ships has been shrinking. Seven have stopped sailing since 1968.

Congress passed virtually unnoticed this spring the law to ease the aid eligibility for the cruise ships. One section permits them to carry one-way passengers between American ports now without losing aid for doing so.

Ship owners are also giving an airing to a new idea to try to write into the law next year a flat guarantee of enough federal aid to insure that all cruise ships will break even—at the very least.

A source close to the House Merchant Marine Committee confirmed congressmen already have been talking informally about such a guarantee.

Key members of the House panel have been among the candidates getting big donations from committees for Seafarers International Union, which gave $500,000 to congressional and national campaigns in 1968.

The union is now under indictment for illegal campaign contributions. In another case, two shipping firms pleaded guilty in San Francisco in February to making illegal campaign contributions.

Wages for American seamen can run four times as high as the pay for foreign crews, a Maritime Administration official said. As a result, well over half of a merchant sailor's pay will come indirectly from the U.S. Treasury.

The government subsidy goes only to make up this difference in wages plus some lesser costs, such as insurance and American shipyard repairs. The liners get no help with fuel, pier fees, management or other costs. But the wage subsidy for the President Cleveland and the President Wilson still topped half of the ships' total expenses last year, a company official said.

Cruise ships like these and the Santa Paula carry large crews, with almost one sailor or steward for every passenger. The Cleveland, for example, carries 390 persons and has 329 crewmen.

The Prudential-Grace Lines, which carries considerable cargo on its cruise runs to pay much of the bills, hopes to break even on its two biggest ships this year. The Monterey and the Mariposa, owned by a subsidiary of Matson Lines, have been making a slight profit.

But the American President Lines reports losses of about $4 million on the Cleveland and Wilson last year. A company official said airline fares put a ceiling on the prices the ships can charge and force the losses despite the federal aid.
